High tech fair on tomorrow

Halton Region will participate in the second annual Bitnet High Tech job fair on Oct. 11 at the Oakville Conference Centre, 2-10 p.m. Information technology companies, with job opportunities for technology professionals, will attend. Info: region.halton.on.ca/about/jobs.

100 exhibitors expected at Careers expo

Students, parents and others wanting to learn more about career and education options are invited to attend Careers 2001— Focus on Technology, this Friday and Saturday at Georgetown High School.

The event features more than 100 exhibitors from various career fields including agriculture, food services, technology, transportation, business and finance, sports, trades and travel and tourism.

The event will be launched Friday (Oct. 12) at a gala luncheon at North Halton Golf and Country Club. Featured guest speaker is Dee Brasseur, Canada's first female fighter pilot, who will address the luncheon guests, and then high school students in the afternoon. Major Brasseur served for two years as a flight commander as well as a test pilot and air school demonstrator. She retired in 1994 after 21 years with the Armed Forces.

The deadline to register for the lunch is noon Thursday (Oct. 11). Cost is $30 for members and $35 for non-members. Call 905-877-7119.

Expo exhibits open on Friday at 6:30 p.m. until 9 p.m. and 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. on Saturday. Exhibitors will include area businesses, local community groups as well as colleges and universities.

Saturday morning seminars include job search skills, entrepreneurship, careers in technology, marketing, marine biology, land surveying, environment, fibre optics, and apprenticeship programs.

This careers fair is being organized by the Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce, Town of Halton Hills, Halton Region Business Development Centre, Junior Achievement of Halton, Halton and Halton Catholic school boards, Ontario Ministry of Agriculture, Food and Rural Affairs and West Jet Airlines.
