Paul and Anna Pacanowski headline first show Sunday at 3 series returns

The successful Sunday at 3 series of afternoon concerts in Halton Hills Cultural Centre, presented by Arts Alive, resumes on Sunday, Oct. 14 with musicians Paul and Anna Pacanowski.

Back by popular demand, their program will include music from the classics to rag-time, showing off their versatility on piano, flute, clarinet, and saxophone.

Sunday at 3 is presented in the Gallery of the Cultural Centre. Doors open at 2:30 p.m. for this hour-long concert and refreshments will be served. Seating is limited. Admission is $5.

Scheduled for upcoming concerts are:

- November 18— The Laurie Walker Trio offers a wide range of melodies from the 1940s to the present.

- January 13— The popular harp/flute duo of Catherine Richardson and Nathalie Younglai will offer an extensive repertoire ranging from classics to spirituals, love songs and contemporary selections.

- February 10— Kory Livingston, vocalist, will perform popular ballads, including many of the songs made famous by Nat King Cole.

- March 10— Bohemian Swing, with the George Grosman Trio will play a selection of classic swing tunes, blues and ethnic swing.

Arts Alive is a group of volunteers who promote the arts in Halton Hills by presenting a variety of entertainment throughout the year.

Big Band sound swings on Oct. 20

The Halton Museum Foundation's popular fund-raising Hearthsides Music Series continues on Saturday, Oct. 20 at 8 p.m. with sound of the Big Band era.

The Whitney Smith Big Steam Band is a 17-piece jazz and swing band which delivers a driving, energetic, straight-ahead performance, not unlike the style of the great Count Basie and Duke Ellington orchestras of the 1950s and 1960s.

The sound is solid swinging jazz mixed in with some hot Latin and sultry rhythm 'n' blues, a spicy combination that gives the Big Steam Band its unique crossover sound.

Cal Dodd, known for his extraordinary vocal range, is the featured vocalist for the evening's performance at the John Elliott Theatre, (Halton Hills Cultural Centre), 9 Church Street, Georgetown.

Hosted by the Halton Museum Foundation, in association with AM740 Prime Time Radio and Lawlor & Company Marketing and Communications, this is a fund-raising event for the museum's building fund.

Tickets for this "one-night only" performance are on sale now at the John Elliott Theatre Box Office at 905-877-3700. Prices are adults $23 and seniors $20.

For more information on this and other events, visit the Halton Region Museum's Web site at www.region.halton.on.ca/museum/NewsEvents.
