Raiders suffer power outage in loss to Caps

The Raiders did hold the conference's highest scoring team to three goals, but in the end it was their own inability to capitalize or even create chances with the man advantage that was their undoing.

"Obviously 0-for-6 on the power play is not going to get it done," said Raider coach John French "It's something we're starting to address in practice."

The Raiders had a chance to put Brampton in an early hole when the Capitals started the contest with a delay of game penalty. The Raiders had three more man-advantage opportunities in the third when they needed a goal to get back in the game but had trouble mounting any pressure.

Still, the Raiders have kept themselves within striking distance of the conference's top teams. With all four the top teams losing on Friday, the standings got even tighter.

"I think if you look at the league, it's pretty even," French said. "What I like is that we've been more consistent with our work ethic."

If that work ethic carries through to consistency with results, the Raiders could make a move. They are only one point behind Mississauga in the race for fourth and are just three back of third-place Bramalea.

RAIDER RAP: Scott MacDonald had the only Raider goal Saturday. He has seven on the season and is closing in on 100 in a Raider uniform (94)... Ryan Robert, Noah Hamilton and T.J. Trevelyan scored on Friday. McDonald and Ryan McCarthy had two assists... Captain Bill Fetherston had his suspension reduced from seven games to four following an appeal hearing with the OHA. He sat out the first two games on the weekend.

Using a little sleight of hand

Georgetown's Krista Nichols dishes the ball off while leaping past a Notre Dame defender in Thursday's Halton senior girls basketball game. Nichols was the Rebels' top scorer but Notre Dame triumphed 44-18.
