

localmotion fund gets boost

The Rotary Club of Georgetown showed its generosity recently by presenting a cheque for $10,000 to the localmotion fund at its annual Gala and Silent Auction at Georgetown Golf Club. On hand for the presentation were (from left) Rotary vice-president Tom Bentley, Halton Hills Ward 3 Councillor Jane Fogal, Mayor Kathy Gastle and Rotary president Brian Herner. The funds are raised by the silent auction and gala night fund-raising activities.

Halton Region's Housing Help Centre can now be accessed through Web site

Halton Region's Housing Help Centre is now on-line.

The centre provides free referral and listing services for tenants looking for affordable housing in the private sector in Halton.

It can now be accessed through Halton's Web site at www.region.halton.on.ca, click on "Services" on the region's home page, then click on "Housing".

Offered through the region's Social and Community Services Department, on-line services include access to performing housing searches (both subsidized and private sector), subsidized housing application forms and special needs housing information.

The on-line service was created in response to the community's need for access to housing information.

Not just tenant focused, the centre offers a free listing service for landlords, too.

Providing excellent access to tenants, private sector landlords in Halton are encouraged to list their current vacancies on the Housing Help Centre's Web site.

Landlords will also find Web links of interest and helpful information on landlord and tenant rights and responsibilities.

"The Housing Help Centre is just one of the initiatives the Region is undertaking in our ongoing efforts to meet the housing needs of this community," said Halton Region chairman Joyce Savoline.

"Whether online or in person, the Centre is a valuable tool for tenants and landlords alike."
