Norval begins preparations for Montgomery Christmas

Preparations are being finalized for the Craft Sale and Bake Table at the Norval Presbyterian Church scheduled for Montgomery Christmas on Saturday, Nov. 24.

The sale will be held from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the church hall. Prizes for a raffle that will be drawn that day will include a crocheted afghan, donated by Edythe King, a gourmet gift basket donated by Crawfords Bakery and a hand-crafted mail box donated by Todd Grasby.

More details of the village's Montgomery Christmas are posted at www.canoe-country.com/montgom.htm.

The Norval United Church reported a very successful 151st anniversary weekend, October 20 and 21. David Oelfke, a singer from Houston, was the special guest at an anniversary benefit concert on the Saturday night at St. Andrew's United Church. Two hundred people attended. As well, 50 attended the early church service the next morning and another 170 at the 10 a.m. service. Almost $2,300 was received in ticket sales Saturday to support Nav Yatra, a community for disabled and able-bodied people in India—$300 in note paper made by the people of Nav Yatra was sold. The youth of the church had a birthday party on Saturday and collected a box of books to ship over to the children of Nav Yatra.

The Norval News is published on Fridays, twice a month. If you have news, coming events or would like to recognize someone for their community spirit, contact me at tel/fax: 905-846-5000 or e-mail: outdoornet@canoe-country.com.
