Visit the Land of Oz and take a Ghost Walk in Acton

Hey kids, and parents, come to the Acton BIA's Haunted House tomorrow (Saturday), 1-4 p.m. in the old YMCA building on Mill St.

The theme for this year's annual event is the Land of Oz and kids will tour the Munchkin Land with Dorothy, meet with the Scarecrow, Tin Man and Cowardly Lion in the Scary Forest and help Dorothy escape from the Wicked Witch of the West.

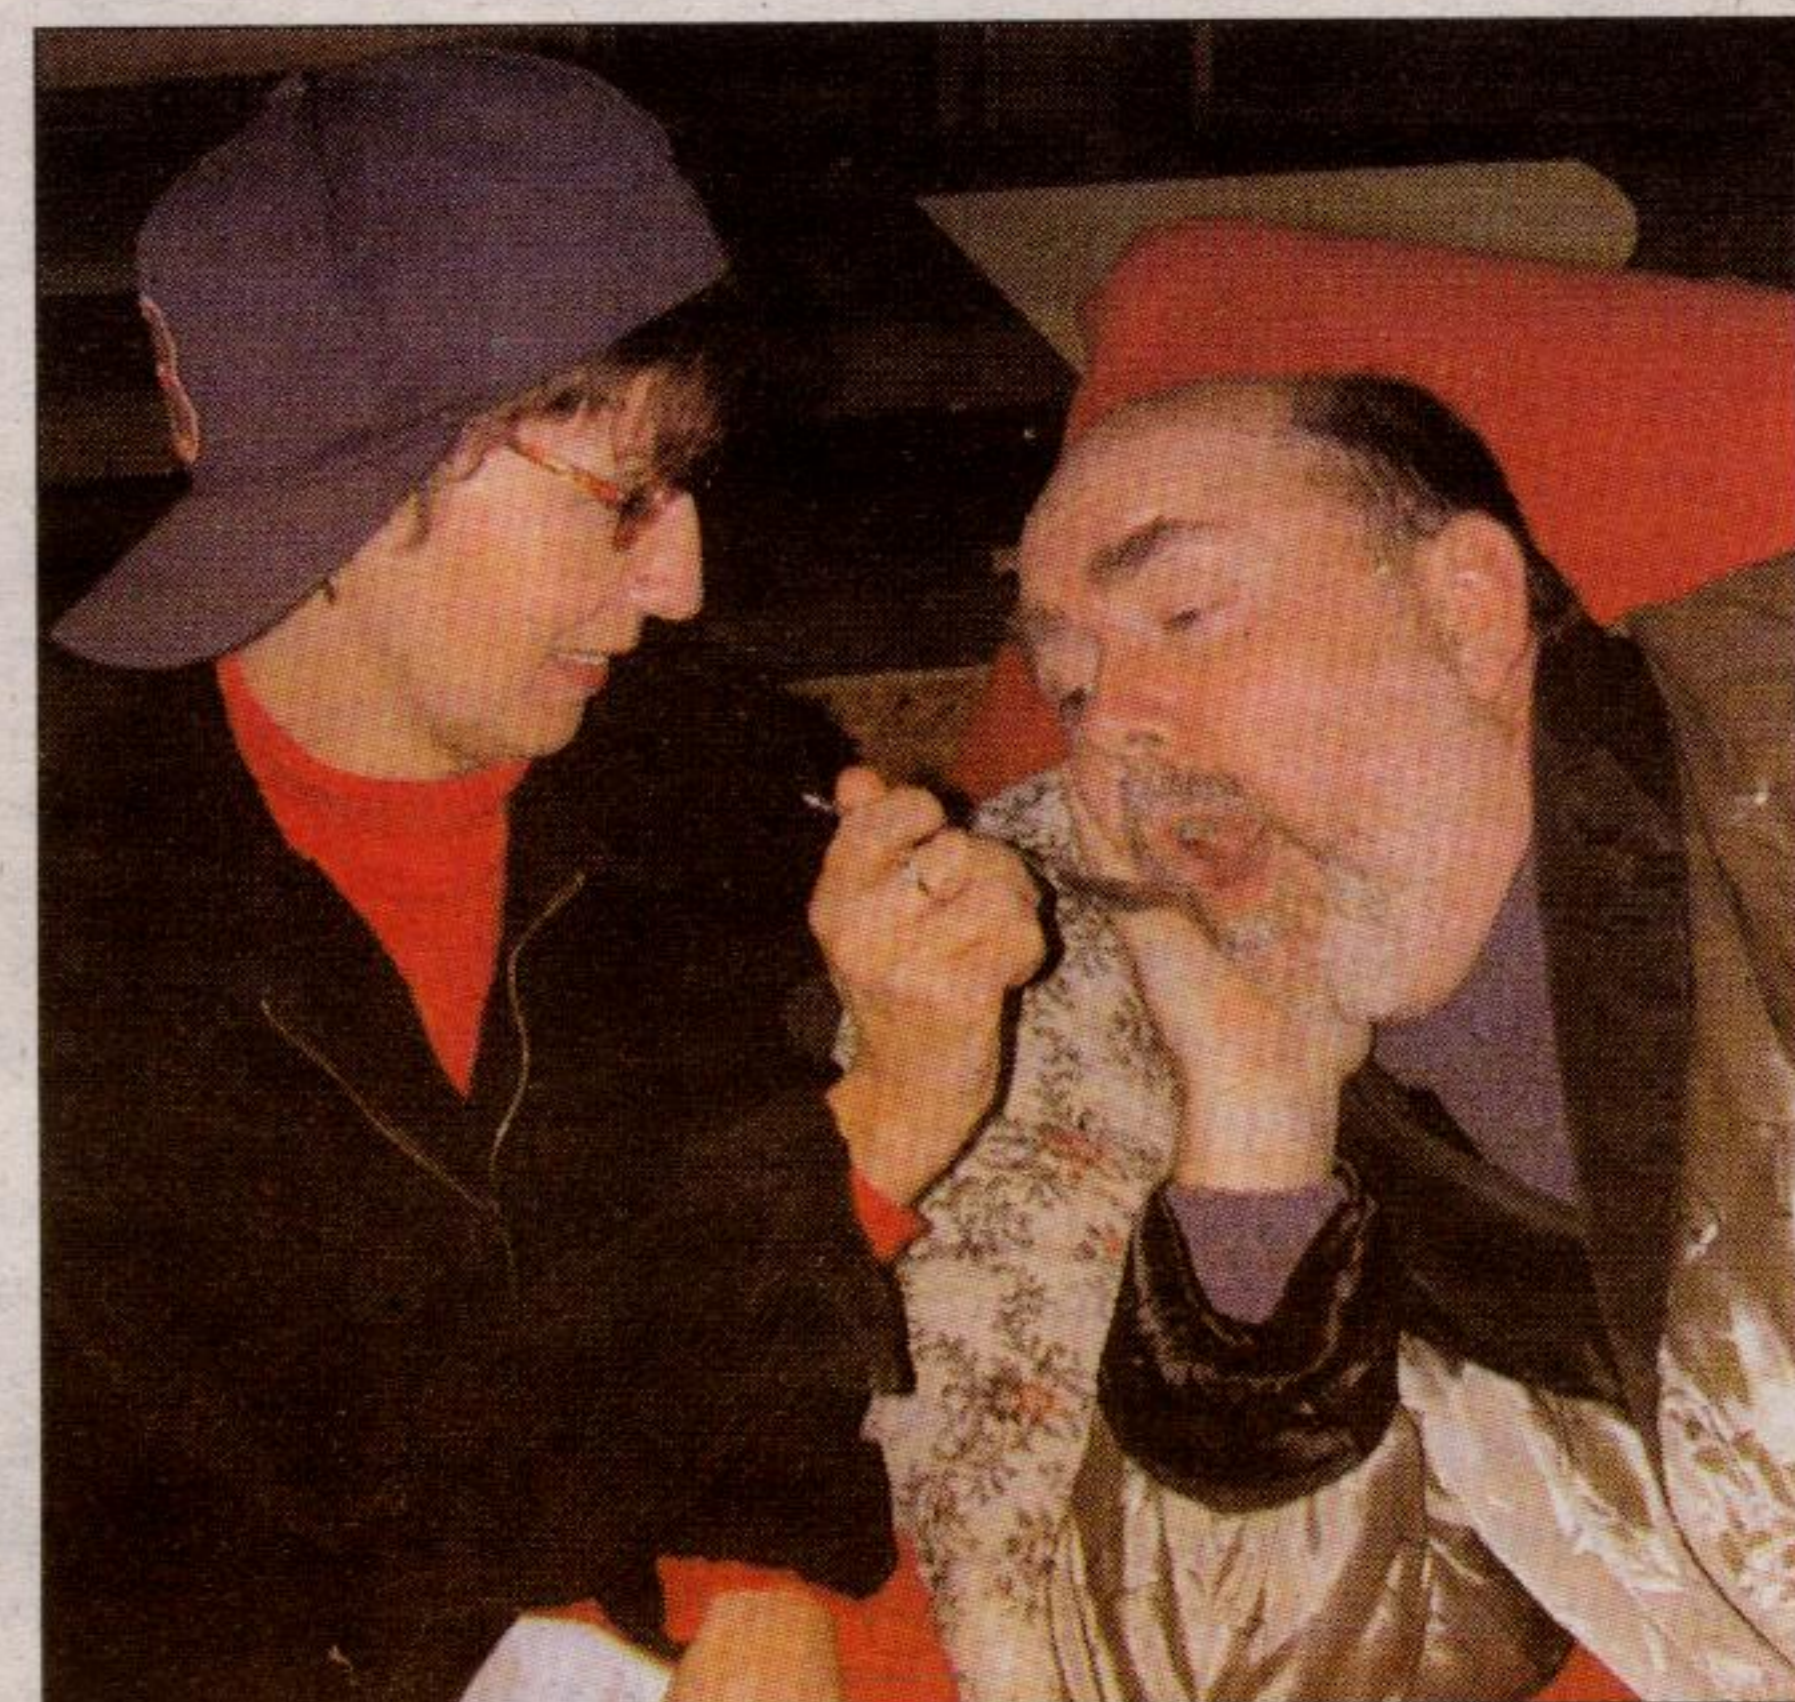

Then it's time to go on a Ghost Walk. Children, and their parents, are given a map of downtown Acton merchants where each child will be given a treat in their special loot bag.

The event, which costs a $1, also includes face painting, colouring contest and a draw for parents.

Acton IGA has donated cookies and juice for the Halloween trick-or-treaters.

Acton BIA co-ordinator Josey Bonnette says many people have contributed to this year's event including many Acton High School students.

GLT in rehearsal

Jason Carmichael (Mark Tiller) soaks up a load of sympathy from Phoebe Craddock (Elizabeth Barfoot) after he suffers a very mild heart attack in Georgetown Little Theatre's newest production Romantic Comedy, which opens at John Elliott Theatre November 1.

Children can win brunch with children's writer Gordon Korman

Halton Hills Public Library is giving children a chance to win brunch with Canadian children's author Gordon Korman.

Children can buy an advanced $2 ticket to Milton's Book Festival for Children before November 2 and will be automatically entered in a draw to win brunch at T.J.'s Lager House & Grill on Sunday, November 4. Tickets can be purchased at either branch.

Korman is a favourite with the school-aged bunch. He has written popular fiction titles like the Bruno and Boots series, and the new Island series.

Tickets for the festival can also be purchased at the door the day of the festival. For more information, call 905-873-2681 ext. 2515 or 905-875-4636.

Halloween Dance on tomorrow

The Ballinafad Community Centre will be hosting a Halloween Dance tomorrow (Saturday). Doors open at 9 p.m. until 1 a.m. Tickets cost $10 per person and are available at the Ballinafad General Store or at the door.
