Man charged after spitting incident

A Georgetown man was charged with assault after an altercation with another Georgetown man in the Georgetown Market Place parking lot Saturday morning.

Halton Police say the two men, one a former employee of the other, met in the parking lot to discuss a dispute. One man told the other to get out of his car and when he didn't get out of the car police say the man spit in the face of a 42-year-old Georgetown man.

Charged with assault is William Gray, 39, of King St.

A 1995 Chevrolet Silverado, worth about $18,000, was stolen from Nashville North parking lot some time late Saturday or early Sunday from the Nashville North parking lot.

About $500 damage was caused to a 1995 Dodge Neon parked at a Raylawn Cr. home late Friday or early Saturday. The car had been scratched.

Halton Police are investigating a break and enter into a Trafalgar Rd. home that occurred between 2:40 and 4 p.m. Saturday. Police say the homeowner was in a nearby field and when he returned home found a black filing cabinet, valued at about $200, had been stolen. The home had inadvertently been left unlocked.

A Georgetown man was charged with theft under $5,000 after a Halton Region employee saw a male remove the front licence plate from a Halton police cruiser and hide it in some nearby bushes at Hepburn St. and Miller Dr. Friday night.

Charged is James Partridge, 18, of Ninth Line.

Halton Police report an undisclosed amount of cash was found in a parcel in the Canadian Tire parking lot last Monday evening. The cash and parcel were turned over to police. The person who lost it is asked to call Halton Police at 905-878-5511 ext. 2105.
