

The Glen has birthday bash

Glen Williams Town Hall hosted an open house and silent auction celebrating the hamlet's 130th anniversary last weekend. The party included the silent auction of old street signs, a historical walk, cake and coffee, and books of old photographs. Pauline Robinson, Glen Williams Citizen of the Year, did the honours and cut the anniversary cake.

Do some early Christmas shopping at Georgetown Seniors' bazaar

November is a busy month at the Georgetown Seniors Centre.

The latest edition of our magazine, The Hilltops, is available and members are urged to pick up their copy as soon as possible. It gives the program schedules right through to January 31, 2002.

Bingo, always a crowd pleaser, is scheduled for Mondays, Nov. 5 and 19 at 1:30 p.m. This is for members only.

On Tuesday, Nov. 6, bridge (6:45 p.m.) and euchre (7 p.m.) are open to all. Come out and enjoy an evening of cards.

The Remembrance Day luncheon catered by Martha Stone's group will be held on Tuesday, Nov. 13 at 12:30 p.m. A delicious hot meal featuring Shepherd's pie will be served and the cost is only $6. Come and introduce a new friend to the centre.

Do you have a wheelchair in need of repair or are looking for a new one? Come to "Mobility Day" on Tuesday, Nov. 20, 1-4 p.m. at the centre. New rollators and wheelchairs will be on display. This showing is sponsored by Young's Pharmacy and Homecare.

On Tuesday, Nov. 27 at 12:15 p.m. come and bring your lunch, and listen to the Raging Grannies, a group of retired teachers. They will be presenting in verse and song their views on matters political and ecological. We're sure you'll enjoy this entertainment all done in a very humorous manner.

On the evening of Nov. 27, at 7 p.m., bid euchre will be played at the centre and is open to all.

A reminder from our travel desk:

- Thursday, Nov. 8, a trip to Stratford to see The Sound of Music; only a few seats are left.

- Wednesday, Nov. 14, travel to Hockley Valley and Orangeville area for lunch at Hockley Valley Resort for a performance of Wingfield on Ice.

For more information on these and other trips planned contact Grant Greenaway at the centre.

And last but not least, don't forget our annual Christmas bazaar, tomorrow (Saturday), 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. There is something for everyone so drop in and pick up a few Christmas gifts.

Until next time, cheerio!
