

Bazaar season heating up

Guide to the Outdoors

Julie Pomeroy

Snow. Montgomery Christmas. All coming very soon. This year we're decorating the store with snowflakes and snow poetry. If you have a favourite, please let us know! I discovered a poem by Longfellow called Snow-Flakes. "Out of the bosom of the air, Out of the cloud-folds of her garments shaken - Silent, and soft, and slow, descends the snow." Stopping by the Woods on a Snowy Evening by Robert Frost is my absolute favourite and I love the passage by L.M.Montgomery in her book The Blue Castle. pg.160, where she writes about the intolerable beauty of winter. I plan to appreciate and enjoy every exquisite snowflake this winter. How about you? Ref: www.library.utoronto.ca/utel/rp/poems/longfe17.html
