Halton Police searching for missing Cambridge man

Halton Police are seeking help from the public in locating a Cambridge man who was last seen Monday morning.

PANDE TURUNDEVZ

OPP officers found a wallet and other personal items belonging to the man, Pande Turundvez, 36, in a car parked on the shoulder of Hwy. 401 east of Guelph Line Monday afternoon.

The car, a 1995 four-door grey Mercury bearing the Ontario licence plate AHDWO88, was unlocked.

Police say Turundvez left his home in Cambridge at 6 a.m. Monday for his job in Mississauga, however, he never arrived at work and has not been heard from since.

Turundvez is described as white, 5'9", 160 lbs, with a medium build, clean shaven, brown hair, brown eyes, and a scar from the middle of his chest to mid-stomach. He wears black frame glasses and when last seen had on light blue jeans, a red/white/blue flannel shirt, navy shoes with white soles and a waist length burgundy jacket.

Anyone with information is asked to call Halton Police 12 Division at 905-878-5511.

Acton ready to welcome Santa

A week after thrilling Georgetown children, Santa Claus will make a return trip to Halton Hills tomorrow (Saturday) when he takes part in the annual Acton Santa Claus Parade.

The theme of this year's parade is Nursery Rhyme Christmas.

The parade, which starts at 1 p.m., will get underway from McKenzie-Smith Bennett School on Acton Blvd. It will turn right on to Queen St., travel to Young St. and then down Mill St. to Main St. The parade will then turn right on Main St., and then left on Knox St. to Prospect Park.

Letter carriers from Canada Post will be walking the parade route collecting letters to Santa from children who should remember to put their name, address and postal code on the letters.
