Ashton Ridge Homes & White Rose Home & Garden

Brings You; Home For the Holidays!

Let festive colour, scent and scenery warm you spirit this Holiday season as Ashton Ridge Homes and White Rose Home & Garden team up to decorate a spectacular model home. The "Del Ray" a 2077sq.ft two-storey home with a large finished 3rd storey loft, offers the perfect home for a fairy tale experience.

This is not the first time Ashton Ridge Homes and White Rose have worked together, In March 2000 they jointly hosted a "Landscaping your New Home seminar" out in Guelph, where celebrated speaker Charlie Dobbins was featured! They have also presented numerous craft days and educational events designed to help the Ashton Ridge Home owner feel more at home in their new neighbourhood. We are building new lifestyles for many of our homeowners says, Tammy Samuels, sales manager at Ashton Ridge Homes, Rockwood. The Holiday Home and some of the other joint ventures allows new residence and those seeking a terrific new home experience to feel welcomed, never pressured and simply offer an opportunity to enjoy the abundance the Rockwood lifestyle has to offer.

Ashton Ridge Homes and their team of dedicated craftsman, new home consultants, and designers have dedicated themselves to creating home's which reflect our purchaser's own great taste! Say's the builder. Special attention to providing innovative floor plans, captivating architectural details created to reflect the heritage look of days gone by, while meeting the functional design need of today's world. Most of all they say they want you to love where you live!

Detached homes start at 1500 sq ft to over 3000sq ft from the $180's and a collection of charming executive style freehold town homes start in the $150's! The builder is able to offer 2 story detached, bungalows and towns. On larger lots. A scenic view of the forested ridge surrounding the site is free of charge! Welcoming large front porch designs provide the perfect place to visit and dream while the children run around, enjoying all country living can offer! All is possible only 30 minutes from Mississauga, and 10 minutes from Guelph.

Here, in the charming village of Rockwood, you can live beside a wooded ridge amidst acres and acres of rolling hills and meadows, in a community traversed by the Eramosa River. For the outdoor enthusiast it is a dream come true. The autumn foliage enhances the existing beauty by painting the most elaborate collage of autumn leaves to be seen any where close to the Metro Toronto area. A scenic drive 30 minutes from Mississauga will be quality time spent with your loved ones this season.

Your holiday decorating will dazzle your friends and family this year when you come out to enjoy the Holiday Home by White Rose and Ashton Ridge Homes. Tasty treats, hot cider, fresh evergreen, and the splendor of Christmas light, enhance the already delightful model home. The Holiday Home can be viewed in its glory starting Nov 19th through to January 2002.
