

Bishop Reding students organize coffee house and food drive

By MARK LAFFRAMBOISE & RYAN PYNE
Bishop Reding Royal Report

With the end of the fall athletic season at Bishop Reding Catholic Secondary School, the winter sports teams are busy preparing.

In exhibition play, the girls hockey team faced Acton High School recently. Nicole Good-ling had a great performance with two goals in the 4-2 victory. Kim Standing and Erica Ercolani also contributed one goal each. Good work ladies.

On Thursday, the Bishop Reding Cosmetology Department presented their second annual hair show, "The Evolution of Hair— A Look Through Time." The evening showed off the hard work and talent of many students. They presented hairstyles and colours of previous decades through a variety of musical and dance presentations. Thanks to all who helped to make this unique evening a success.

The Students of Living Life (SOLL) is a group of students who are dedicated to helping our school and surrounding communities. They will be holding their annual coffee house on Tuesday, Dec. 11, 7- 9:30 p.m. The evening will present a variety of music, art and speakers.

As the Christmas season quickly approaches, students are once again encouraged to donate non-perishable food items in support of the annual Christmas Food Drive. Collection will conclude Dec. 14.

The Bishop Reding Drama department is participating in this year's Sears Drama Festival. Congratulations to: Alexandra Bruno, Adrienne Carney, Ashley Codner, Kaylyn Dorland, Alison Dwyer, Joanne Haughie, Greg Myers, Kaitlin McDonald and Jordan Scarlett who were selected as this year's cast members. If you are still interested in helping with this year's production please see Ms File or Miss Phy.

To end this week's column— "No one should think himself or herself a zero, and think he can do nothing about the state of the world." Bernard M. Baruch

Winter programs for kids at the library

Halton Hills Public Library offers free programs for children, aged six months to five years, beginning in January. To register for Baby Tales, Tales for Twos, or Library Lion Tales, visit either branch between December 1 and 28 to pick up a registration form. Proof of child's age is required; programs are filled by lottery. For more information, call Halton Hills Public Library at 905-873-2681 ext. 2515 or 519-853-0301.
