Impact squads open on winning note

The Georgetown Impact lived up to their top billing by opening the season with a double victory.

The Bantam Impact defeated Waterdown to win the championship of a Ontario Volleyball Association tournament in Etobicoke while the Midget Impact also started the season off right by defeating Toronto West in the final of a Hamilton OVA tournament.

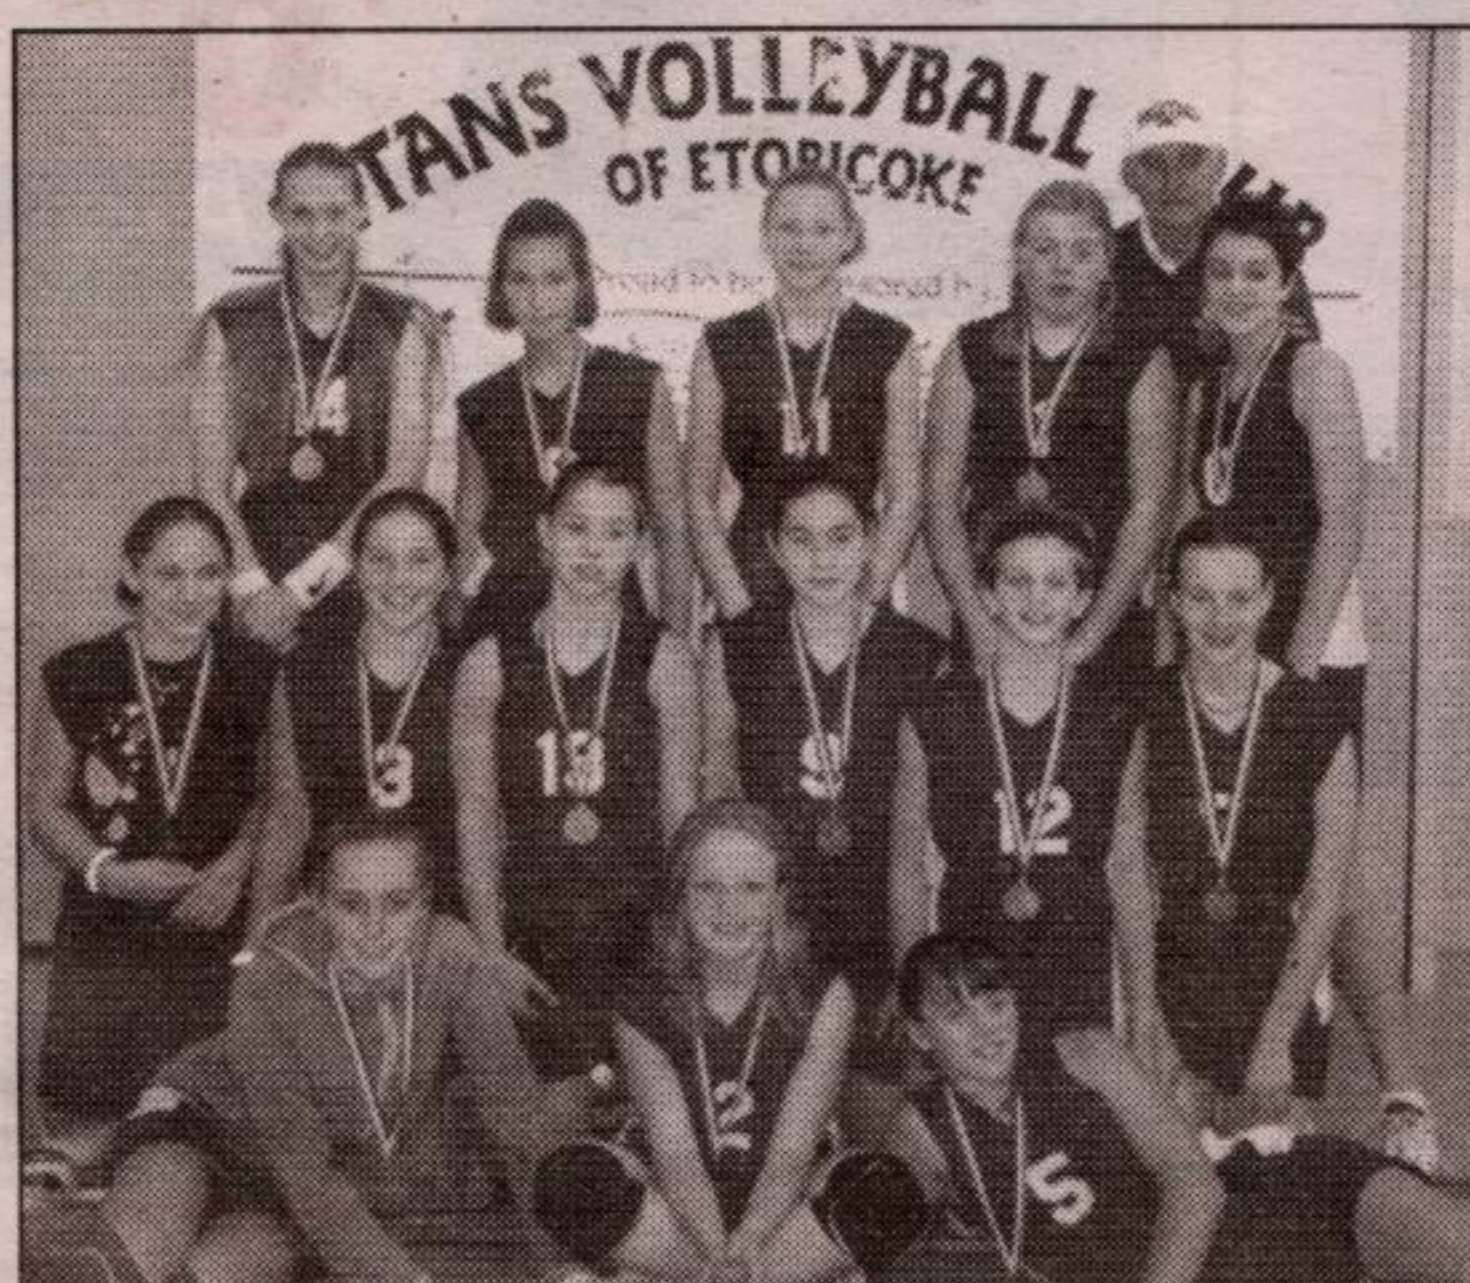

The top-seeded Bantam Impact were a perfect 8-0 in pool play after sweeping Waterdown B, Peel Select, Primrose and Etobicoke. Peel then surprised the Impact, handing them their first loss, 25-21, in the opening game of the semifinals. Peel then took a 21-17 lead in game two but the Impact rallied behind the serving of Sherelle Sheppard, Joanna Meltzer and Sarah Fredricks to take eight of the last nine points to win 25-22 and force a deciding game, where the Impact completed the comeback with a 15-9 win.

In the championship game Sheppard, Kayle Cox, Kelly Haines and Rebecka Hickman provided outstanding defence in a 25-15, 25-20 victory over Waterdown.

The Midget Impact also entered their tournament as the number one seed in the 15-team field. They defeated Primrose, Waterdown and Oakville to post a 6-0 record in pool play.

The opened the playoffs with a 25-17, 25-22 victory over Waterdown Gold and then defeated the Hamilton Spartans 25-19, 25-22.

Toronto West was a surprise finalist but the
