

Bubble, bubble, toil and trouble...

Four-year-old Sam Taylor got a surprise at the Mad Science demonstration in the Georgetown Market Place on Wednesday. The mixture of water, dish soap and dry ice bubbled over delighting the dozens of youngsters who stopped by to watch. Kids could also make their own slime, try to catch a holographic pig as well as try out numerous other experiments. The event was part of the mall's March Break activities.

Ewing Street break-in nets thief $9,300 in goods

Halton Police are investigating a break and enter into a Ewing St. home that occurred Tuesday afternoon. Police say the homeowner left the house unlocked when he went out for a couple of hours and returned to find about $9,300 worth of items, including CDs, DVDs, jewelry and cash missing.

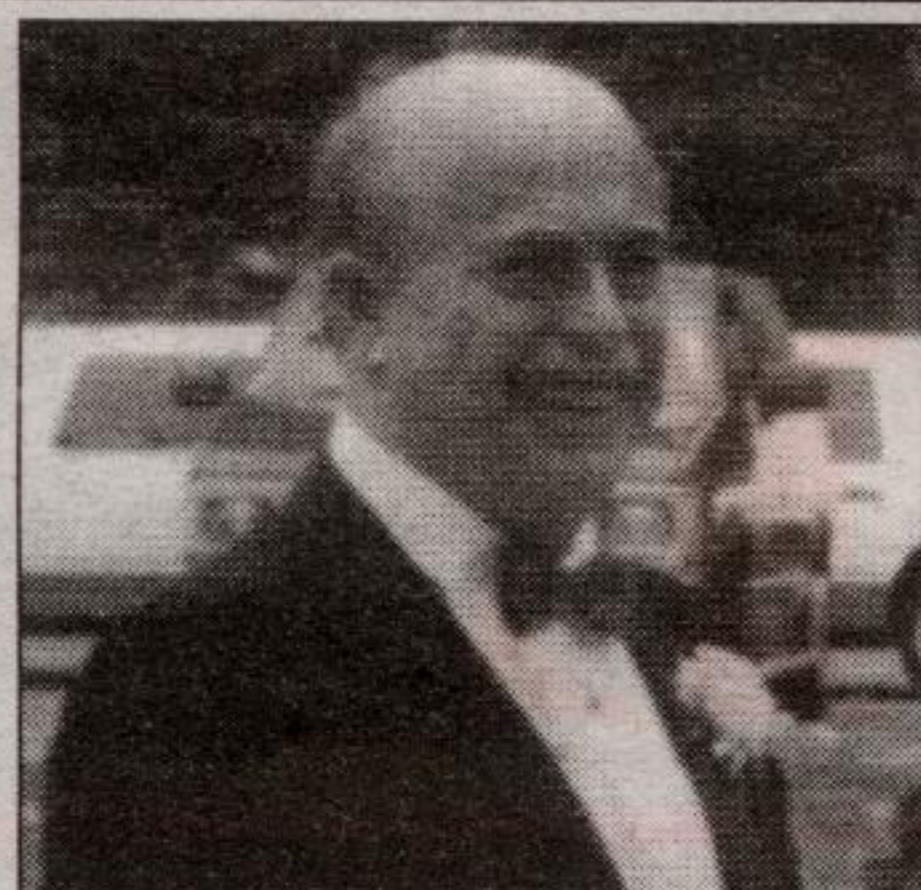

gas generator was stolen from a locked construction site on Willoughby Way in Georgetown sometime late Monday. A lock on the gate had been cut to gain entry.

About $1,000 worth of items, including change, liquor and jewelry, were taken from a home on Stewart MacLaren Rd. during a break and enter Tuesday. Entry was gained through an unlocked rear sliding door.

A Mississauga man was charged with impaired driving after police stopped a driver for speeding on Hwy. 7 west of Adamson Rd. Monday night.

Charged is Gurpal Duarmait, 32, of Manion Rd., Mississauga.
