Harris records shutout as Tanners top Arthur

Jesse Harris backstopped the Acton Carquest Minor Novice Tanners to a 5-0 win over Arthur in the deciding game of their OMHA semifinal.

Harris recorded his second shutout of the season as the Tanners took the series three games to two.

Meanwhile, Roger Kirkness scored his first of two goals just seven seconds into the game to provide the Tanners with all the offence they would need. Nicholas Eagan also scored twice and Jesse Spurrell had a goal and an assist. Dylan Cremona had a pair of assists and Cameron Hryciw had one.

Acton now faces Caledon in the OMHA final.

Acton took the opening game of the series but Arthur came back to win the next two in the best-of-five series. In game two, goals by Spurrell and Brandon Lockyer sent the game into the third period tied but Arthur got the only goal of the third for a 3-2 win. Eagan scored the lone Acton goal in a 2-1 loss in game three.

Needing a win to stay alive, the Tanners held off a late Arthur charge to win 3-2 and force a deciding game. Eagan had all three Acton goals—two of them in the third period—for his fourth hat-trick of the season. Spurrell had a pair of assists with singles to John White and Mitchell Brake.

Novice II Raiders advance by doubling Flamborough

Madelyn Williams' second goal of the game broke a 2-2 tie as the Georgetown Halton Hills Rad & Tire Novice II Raiders went on to a 4-2 win over Flamborough.

The victory gave Georgetown a 6-2 victory in the six-point series and moves the Raiders into the OMHA final against Orangeville. That series opens Monday in Orangeville at 7 p.m. with game two in Georgetown on Wednesday at the Alcott Arena at 6:30 p.m.

Jesse Simonsen had a goal and two assists for the Raiders and Brent Jones had the other goal. Jean Marc Crew had a pair of assists with singles going to Matt Campbell and Alexandre Crew.

The semifinal series began with a 2-2 tie. Jean Marc Crew and Williams had the Raider goals while Timothy Shepherd, Trevor Fillier, Jones and Simonsen drew assists.

Jones' goal with four seconds to play gave the Raiders a 4-3 victory in game two. Simonsen scored twice and Williams had a goal and an assist. Jean Marc Crew, Alexandre Crew and Trevor Fillier had assists.

Simon Wellington turned aside 34 shots but the Raiders had to settle for a scoreless tie in game three.

Halton Bantam Hurricanes reach OMHA tournament

The Halton Major Bantam Hurricanes have advanced to the OMHA championship tournament.

Halton will be one of five teams vying for the championship when the tournament begins today at River Oaks Arena in Oakville. The Hurricanes first game is 11 a.m. today (Friday) against the host Oakville and at 5:20 p.m. against Quinte. Saturday the Hurricanes will face York-Simcoe at 2 p.m. and Niagara Falls at 7 p.m.

The bronze medal game is slated for 9:20 a.m. on Sunday while the gold medal game will follow at 11:50 a.m. The winner of the tournament will advance to the OHL Cup.

The Hurricanes have seven local players on the team—Daniel Sliasa, Brad Torres, Jonathan Southgate, Jay Sprague, Adam Holton, Adam Armonas and Matt Velten—as well as the coaching staff of Rob MacLeod, Gary McFadyen, manager Phil Southgate and trainer Gord MacDonald.
