

PLANNING A CHILD'S BIRTHDAY

Planning a child's birthday party doesn't have to be difficult if you call Parteez To Go.

The Georgetown business, owned by Gwen Campbell, specializes in birthday parties for children.

She said Parteez To Go can host the party at their 76 Main St. S. location where guests can enjoy mini golf, air hockey, and organized age appropriate games.

The customized parties can be based on many different themes and are available in a variety of packages. Each on-site party includes two-hour use of the facility, invitations, thank-yous and costume rental for up to 12 children, age appropriate games and prizes, and a hostess to assist the parent.

Parents can organize the party and leave the clean-up to Parteez To Go, or Parteez To Go can handle everything from invitations, to food, to thank-yous and everything in between.

For those who are planning an at-home party Campbell offers a complete "party in a box" which includes costumes for all the guests, games with prizes, Polaroid picture for each guest, mylar balloon, table ware, invitations, thank you notes and a party planner.

She said they also provide customized loot bags, pinatas, and gift baskets for kids, adults and corporate giving.

Campbell launched the business last summer. She says she enjoys planning parties.

"It's fun," she said. "I like seeing the kids having a good time."

Some of the party themes she offers include Safari Adventure, Tea Party, Glamour Girl Party, Princess Party, Dinosaur Dig, Pirate Treasure Hunt, Beach Party, Western Party, Alien Invasion, and Dance Party which is popular with the 12 to 14-year-old crowd.

Campbell said she prefers parents book parties at least two weeks in advance. For information call Parteez To Go, which also does adult parties, at 905-877-7613.
