KENT, SAM

June 11, 1977- April 1, 2001. As time passes the pain fades and the reflections grow deeper.

We remember: A mischievous energetic child, a more reflective, quiet adult. How considerate and loyal you were to your friends and family. A creative, artistic young man with a deep passion for fishing, pool and video games. How strong and courageous you were during your illness and how hard you fought to stay alive. God had a different plan. We miss you dearly and pray you are finally comfortable and at peace.

Love always, Dad & Mom.

I can only hope, that sometime in the future, I can return the favour. Last, but not least Rick, thanks for the warm reception I received when I attempted to join the ball team. What a kind and considerate gesture you extended. Thanks again to all of you. Sincerely, Valerie McCulloch
