

Highland thanks

Book battle begins Tuesday at the library

Halton Hills Public Library's annual Battle of the Books contest will be held on Tuesday, April 23 at 7 p.m.

School teams in Grades 3-8 will test their knowledge of children's literature by answering questions in a game show format in the match to be held at Georgetown library branch.

The two top-scoring teams will go on to compete at the regional level.

Anyone enjoying children's literature is welcome to attend.

For more information about Battle of the Books, please call 905-873-2681 ext. 2515.

Canada Book Day

Halton Hills Public Library celebrates Canada Book Day on April 23. Visit your local branch and enjoy some book displays. Now in its seventh year, Canada Book Day coincides with UNESCO-declared World Book Day.

Scouts to hold Planting Day on Saturday

North Halton District Scouting's (NHDS) Scoutrees Planting Day will be held this Saturday, April 20, 9-11 a.m. at Dufferin Aggregates's Acton Quarry on the Fourth Line, south of Hwy. 7.

Following the planting, a barbecue will take place.

Scoutrees began in 1972 as a pilot project and has continued across ever since. This is the second year in a row that trees have been planted in the Acton Quarry location.

Youth are reminded to wear their uniform, dress for the weather and bring a pail and shovel.
