

Bookworms rejoice!

Canadian Federation of University Women (CFUW) Georgetown branch members Janet Duval and Linda Walton, sort through some of the rare insect and butterfly books that are being offered at the annual CFUW Georgetown used book sale at Georgetown District High School, tomorrow (Saturday) in the school cafeteria. The sale runs from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m., and has approximately 5,000 books available, as well as toys for the little ones. Proceeds from the sale fund the CFUW scholarships, which are awarded to local high school students.
