Everyone's invited to GSC's breakfast

Through a combination of misinformation and error we goofed in the last column regarding the Georgetown Seniors Centre's (GSC) camera club. Meetings dates were listed in the Hilltop Magazine as starting April 19, in fact they've changed to Mondays. The next meeting will be on May 13 at 10 a.m. in the centre, and will be held monthly (damn gremlins!).

Some April programs are worth repeating, so here goes:

Tomorrow (Saturday) is a special day as the men (with a guiding hand from the ladies) serve a pancake, sausage, juice, tea/coffee breakfast for anyone who are brave enough to get up early on a Saturday (8-11 a.m.). Cost is $6 for adults, $3 for children under 12.

On Tuesday, April 23, Geri Fashions will be at the centre with their spring showing. Preview 10 a.m. with a full show from 1:15-3 p.m. Cost is $5.

Then on Saturday, April 27, 8 a.m. to noon, come and browse our yard sale. As is said "some person's junk is another's treasure; that's not to say we're selling junk, only treasures. You may find that item you've always been looking for.

Last week, Maddie Howat and I entered the Seniors Games shuffleboard tournament held in Burlington. We gave it our best effort but only managed third place on total score. The top team was only 18 points ahead so we did not disgrace ourselves, and we met some new friends.

Our spring luncheon was well attended with a large group of guests from the Bennett Centre. Martha Stone's group served a hot ham dinner. The drama club entertained us with a comedy ski. Congratulations all, you did yourselves proud.

An evening of bid euchre will be held at the centre on Tuesday, April 23 at 7 p.m. Come one, come all you card players.

From our travel desk— Beside some excellent 7-10 day trips, Grant has a couple of day trips that may interest you. See him on any Tuesday or Thursday for more information.

Until next time, cheerio!
