They visit the client's home and provide a sketch of what the design will look like and make suggestions about the types of plants that would work in specific areas taking into consideration light and soil conditions.

She said they have helped out with the landscape design at the Inn on the Hill Best Western and at various residences in Georgetown, Mississauga and Brampton.

Container gardening is a definite trend in landscaping.

"The scale of yards are so much smaller," she said. She added a homeowner can take an interesting pot (they offer many in their shop), plunk a plant in it "then you have an instant feature within half an hour."

They have a repotting station in the gardening section so White can help customers repot their plants.

They also currently have many perennials at the shop and plan to offer trees, shrubs, annuals, hanging baskets and some statuary.

Later in the spring and summer, White said they will offer seminars on gardening and landscape design and workshops on floral design.

Current hours, which will be extended when gardening season is in full swing, are Monday to Wednesday 9 a.m. to 6 p.m., Thursday and Friday 9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Saturday 8:30 a.m. to 6 p.m. and Sunday noon to 5 p.m. Call 905-877-5571.
