

Volunteers wanted to help out at Riverfest

Riverfest 2002 will be on Saturday, May 25. Gini Dalgas is giving it all she's got in getting this year's event organized. Thank you Gini for your volunteer effort.

This event requires a tremendous amount of effort. If any of you out there could afford even a few hours of your time next Saturday, please contact Gini at 905-877-3883 or dalgas@aztec-net.com.

Now, what kind of fun could you volunteer for? There are some festive fish windsocks and a music tent to put up Friday night. On Saturday there are signs to put up, information booths to run, Tom Pettingill could use some assistance with safety and parking, there's the barbecue put on by the Norval Community Association, or help out at the fly fishing centre, snake and amphibian display, water conservation activities, prospector's campsite and more.

For your information, the climbing wall is back this year as well the chain-saw carver and Hiker Mike Kirby of CFRB. New attractions include a couple of llamas used for hiking trips and Don Noble has plans to release "live" butterflies at the event every hour. A great line up. Please give Gini a call.

Seven thousand homemade pies! Count'em up. For 35 years, the Norval United Church has been hosting an annual chicken barbecue and every dinner comes with pie. The barbecue will be held after Riverfest, on May 25, 4-8 pm. at the Huttonville Public School. There will be a silent auction to raise funds for the Vacation Bible School. Among items for the auction are handcrafted wooden articles and gift certificates from local businesses. Book your tickets by calling 905-459-2837. Adults $10 ($11 at the door), children $5 ($6 at the door)

Norman Shea passed away on April 10, 2002. Norm was the son of Nellie and the late Orval Shea of Norval. He was a brother of Lynda Howse (Fred) of Norval, husband to Judith Chaffey and father of Philip and his friend Carmen and Fred and his wife Dee. Norm was a proud grandpa of Liam. He was uncle to Paul, Christopher and Debbie. Many of us who grew up in Norval knew Norm and he was a past president of the Acton Fall Fair. Deepest sympathy to the Shea family from our community.

If you have Norval news, you can reach me at 905-846-5000 or e-mail: outdoor.net@canoe-country.com.
