

Police honorees

The Halton Regional Police service held its annual awards ceremony last week at headquarters in Oakville. Civilians, officers and members of the media were recognized for their efforts in the past year. Among those receiving Chief's Civilian Commendations were (left) Sandy French and Thomas Beedham. French and two others rescued a woman attempting suicide while Beedham, an Independent & Free Press carrier helped a senior citizen who had fallen in her home. (Right) Deputy Chief Gary Crowell presented Independent & Free Press writer/photographer Herb Garbutt with his media award for best feature photo (inset right).
