Tickets on sale now for Big Chill dance on June 8

The Big Chill is back. The fund-raising dance, held on an annual basis for 12 years until 1999, is returning June 8.

The dance, featuring music by George Oliver and Gangbuster, will be held at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex. It will benefit the new sports museum.

"The museum is going to benefit a lot of different groups so they're all working together a common goal," dance organizer Jake Poulstrup said. "It's exciting seeing people get behind this. The community is really pulling together."

"(Oliver is) a high quality entertainer who has been doing live shows since the late 60s," Poulstrup said. "It's the type of music people can dance to and he comes with great referrals."

Portrait drawing

Palette and Pencil Guild of the Credit Valley Artisans hosts Portrait Drawing for adults every Tuesday, 7:30-9 p.m. in the Cedarvale Lodge in Cedarvale Park. New members welcome. Info: Rita Ladjansky, 905-873-2290.

Choral Society concert

Georgetown Choral Society presents a musical tribute to musical composer Richard Rodgers— selections from Carousel, Oklahoma, The King and I, The Sound of Music and South Pacific in a concert on Saturday, June 1, 8 p.m. at Holy Cross Hall. Tickets are $12 and available at The Freckled Lion, Bergsma's Paint & Wallpaper and from choir members.

Gathering of the clans

The 27th Annual Georgetown Highland Games will take place, 8 a.m. to 8 p.m., rain or shine, on Saturday, June 8 at the Georgetown Fairgrounds.

Each year, the games attract spectators and competitors from as far away as northern United States and the Maritimes. This year more than 6,000 people are expected to attend.

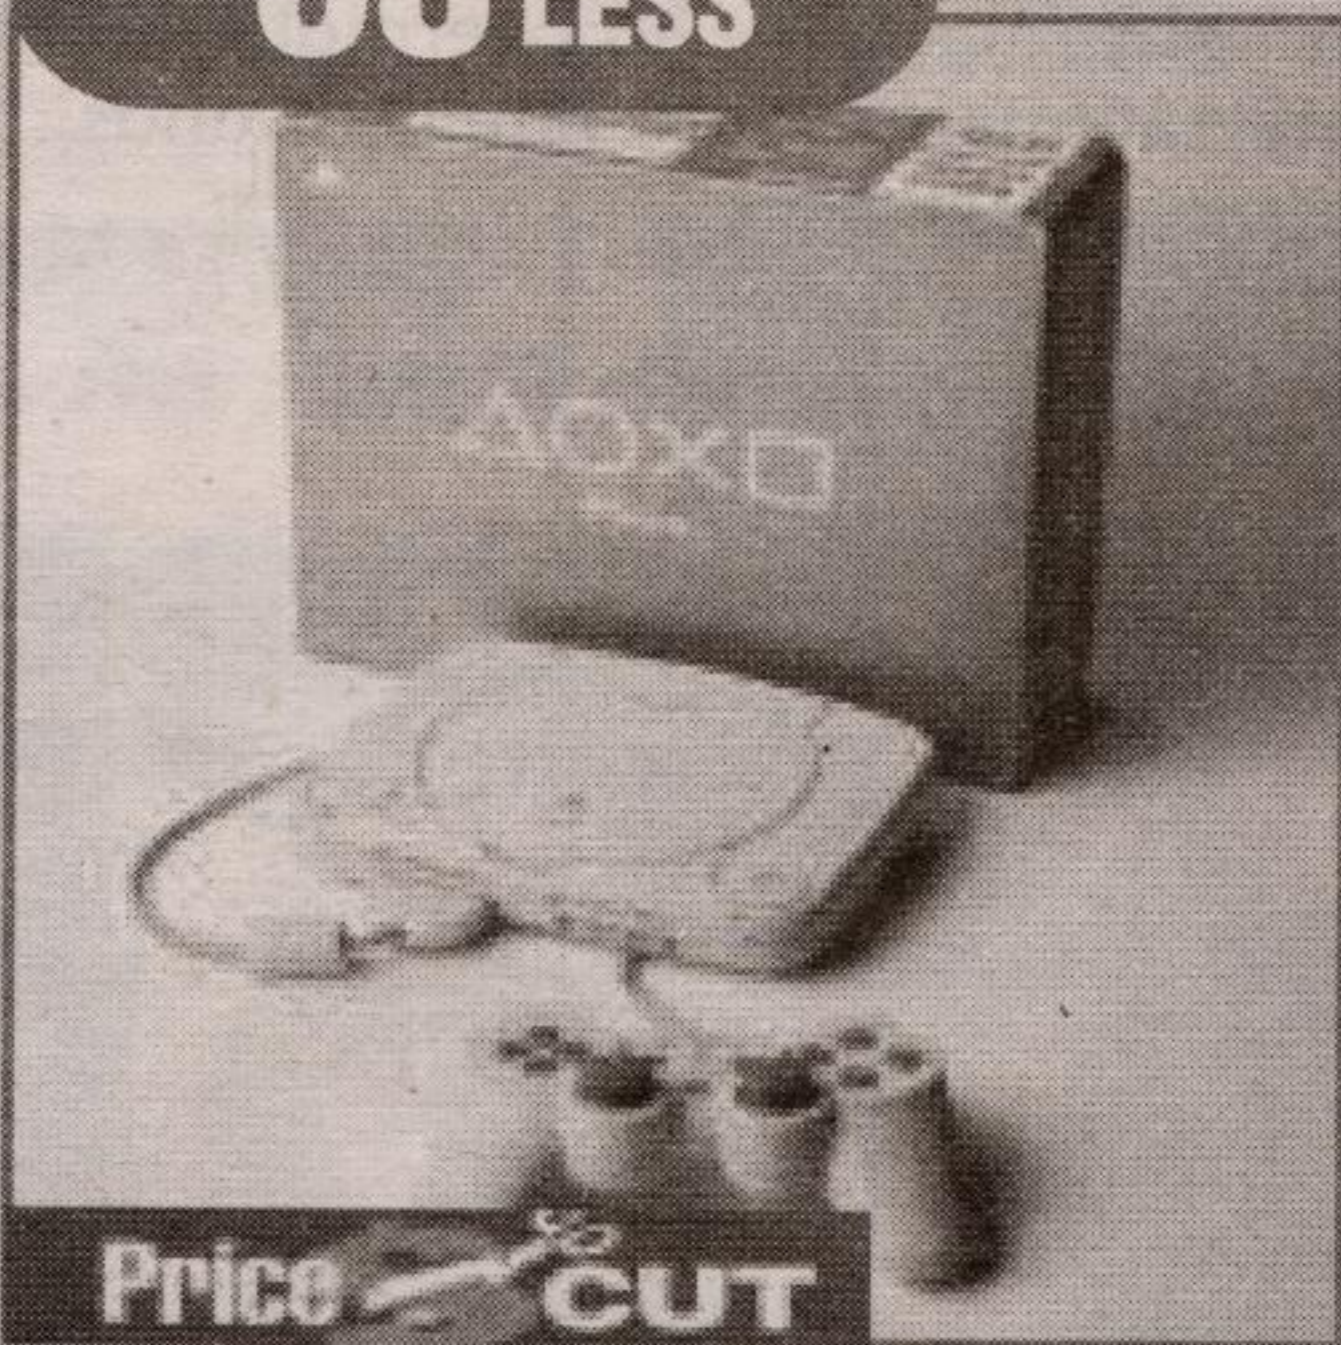

New to the games this year is the women's heavyweight competition and a highlight is The Toronto Police Pipe Band.
