

CAS-HH congratulates winners

Lionesses prepare for Koins campaign

The Georgetown Lioness Club will hold its annual Kilometre of Koins Campaign, this Saturday, June 8 at various locations around the town. Look for the Lionesses in their blue shirts, says Lioness Vina Shannon.

Since 1985, the Lionesses have held this fund-raiser for the Lions All Ontario Dialysis Camp in Dorset. Located in the Haliburton Muskoka highlands, it provides patients a week holiday with their family while receiving treatment for their kidneys. Camp Dorset has a modern medical clinic with 20 hemodialysis stations for patients. It had 12 cottages and 15 efficiency units, all fully equipped, plus a trailer park, covered pool, tennis court and beach area.

The Lions started this camp in 1977 and have built it up over the years with volunteer work and donations.
