

Teeing off on her MPP

Halton Hills Mayor Kathy Gastle and Halton MPP Ted Chudleigh, sometimes political rivals, put differences aside last week during the Mayor's Heritage Golf Tournament at Blue Springs Golf Course. Proceeds from the tournament will be used to fund heritage projects in town.

Support strong for industrial subdivision

Halton Hills Economic Development Officer Allan O'Neill has given strong support for a M.R.S. Trust Company proposal to develop a nine-lot industrial subdivision at the corner of Regional Rd. 25 and Campbellville Rd.

O'Neill said at a public meeting recently, "I'd like to see these much-needed industrial lands get into the marketplace as soon as possible, hopefully this summer. There is definitely a market for this land...that's in close proximity to Hwy. 401. We need the lands, we need industrial lands in Halton Hills, and this is opportunity to get some industrial lots into the marketplace fairly quickly."

Before the town can proceed with the subdivision plan and rezoning approvals, it must await comments from Halton Region on traffic impacts and hydrogeological concerns.

Farmer Bob Merry commented at the meeting that these 44 acres were at one time "one of the best farms in the county".

Deadline for public comment is July 2.
