Air cadets honoured

Following annual inspection, 756 Squadron received a new commanding officer as Maj. Garry Kramer (left) took over from outgoing CO Capt. Alison Murray (centre) as they signed the documents under presiding officer L/Col. William Adcock of the Lorne Scots, while Sgt. Dean Cully (standing) of the central Region Detachment Centre of the Air Cadets looked after the paperwork. Capt. Murray has been the Squadron's Commanding Officer for more than three years, and only the second female CO in the 34-year history of the Squadron.

Be Boat Smart.

There are many rules to follow when boating or driving, but there is one rule that's the same whether you're on land or at sea—Don't Drink & Drive!

Many boating accidents occur when the driver is under the influence of drugs or alcohol. Your day on the water can be fun and enjoyable if you stay sober and in control of your vessel.
