Midget Bulldogs win season opener 6-4

Travis Bland had two goals and two assists to lead the Halton Hills T&P Meats Midget Bulldogs to a season-opening 6-4 win over Orangeville II.

Mark Galick also scored twice and Matt Bronizewski and Tim Laidlaw added singles. Galick, Bronizewski, Brad Torres, Matt Lyons and Jason Herron-Jacobs drew assists.

The Bulldogs doubled East Gwillibury 10-5 in their next game. Galick paced the offence with five goals and an assist. Alex Dube, Tim Walinga, Matt Lyons, Brad Torres and Kevin Brown also scored. Graham Knoepfli, Lyons, Adam Holton, Torres, Chad Artem and Brown picked up assists.

Tyke Bulldogs

The Halton Hills Galvcast Tyke Bulldogs began the defence of their provincial title with two convincing victories.

Adam Mackinnon, Mitchell Christopher and Kyle Moore each scored three times in a 13-4 victory over Brampton. Scott Laughton had a goal and three assists and Brandon Clelland, Derek Thomas and Bryce Nicolucci also scored. Matteo Condotta had four assists and Nicolucci, Mackinnon and Devon Wylde set up a pair of goals.

Laughton scored three times and set up two more against his former team, Mimico, in a 10-2 Bulldog win. Jacob Hand and Moore each scored twice and Clelland and Condotta each had a goal and two assists. Christopher had the other goal. Adam Limina and Moore had two assists each.

Tyler Christopher earned the win in net in both games.

Late collapse sinks Hawks at St. Catharines tourney

The Ontario Lady Jays scored three times in the seventh inning to edge the Halton Hills Midget Hawks 4-3 for the gold medal at a tournament in St. Catharines.

The Hawks had won four straight games leading up to the final, including a 2-0 shutout of Amherst, New York in the semifinal. Lisa Mior fired a complete-game three-hitter and struck out seven for the victory. Sarah Berry chipped in two hits and scored the winning run when Melissa Sheppard drove her home in the third inning.

In the final, Jade Reid pitched five strong innings and, backed by good defensive plays like Isabel Dicegile's double play, the Hawks built a 3-1 lead. The Hawks scored twice in the third with an Alexandra Findlay double sandwiched between singles by Keri Lindsay and Lisa Mior. The Hawks added another in the sixth with Cheryl Mastalerz doubling home Sheppard.

Reid pitched a five-inning two-hit shutout in the Hawks opener, a 7-0 win over the hosts. Lindsay, Sheppard, Mior and Julie Robitaille each had two hits.

Jenn Lukas pitched a four-hitter, striking out seven in a 5-2 win over Guelph. Michelle Barrett had two hits and Sheppard and Robitaille each drove in a pair of runs.

Berry's second hit of the game brought home the winning run in the first extra inning as the Hawks edged Mississauga North 6-4 in the final round-robin game. Mastalerz and Mior combined to strike out nine batters.
