Celebrate!

The students at Halton Hills School of Dancing are perfecting their moves for the annual recital, Celebration 2002 at the John Elliott Theatre. Ready to jazz it up for the shows, June 7-9, are (from left) Sarah Dolman, Rebecca Lanthier, Reid Antoniow, Kristen Belogh and Shelby Antoniow. For tickets call the box office, 905-877-3700.

Local student hosts recital

Concert pianist Obadiah Ariss of Georgetown will present a recital, Yo Doctor O, on Monday, June 10, 7:30 p.m. at the Halton Hills Cultural Centre. He will be performing works by Beethoven, Bach and Brahms.

OBADIAH ARISS

Ariss is currently enrolled in the Doctor of Music program at the University of Colorado as a scholarship student, and is presenting the concert to raise funds to continue his studies abroad. In his young career, the 24-year-old has already performed at Carnegie Hall, Roy Thomson Hall, the Elora Festival and the Colorado Music Festival—just to name a few.

Tickets—$12 adults, $10 seniors and children—are available at Office Magic and Strictly Fish with some limited tickets available at the door. Group discounts are available.

DON'T GAMBLE WITH YOUR LIFE

Shooting drugs is no different than shooting dice: you'll be on a roll for a while, but one time is all it takes to end the game.

Drug addiction can happen quickly and be hard to beat.

So, why play games with your health and well-being? It's not a gamble worth taking.
