

Roll Up Your Sleeves, Canada!

Canadian Blood Services Blood Clinic convener Evelyn Haffey of Georgetown (left) was joined by Clinic Recruitment co-ordinator Marianne Clarke as they unfurled the new 'Roll Up Your Sleeves Canada' banner to promote Monday's (June 10) blood donor clinic to be held at Maple Avenue Baptist Church hall, 2 to 8 p.m. Another clinic will be held at the Acton Legion, 4-8 p.m. on June 20. The new slogan is an attempt to attract new regular donors to ensure hospital demand for blood is met. In order to meet patient demands in the Toronto area, more than 30,000 units of blood are required between May 14 and September 3. To book an appointment call 1-888-2DONATE.

Lionesses to collect for Lion camp

The Georgetown Lioness Club will hold its annual Kilometre of Koins Campaign, this Saturday, June 8 at various locations around the town. Look for the Lionesses in their blue shirts, says Lioness Vina Shannon.

Since 1985, the Lionesses have held this fund-raiser for the Lions All Ontario Dialysis Camp in Dorset. Located in the Haliburton Muskoka Highlands, it provides patients a week holiday with their family while receiving treatment for their kidneys. Camp Dorset has a modern medical clinic with 20 hemodialysis stations for patients. It had 12 cottages and 15 efficiency units, all fully equipped, plus a trailer park, covered pool, tennis court and beach area.

The Lions started this camp in 1977 and have built it up over the years with volunteer work and donations.
