

Bantams fall at provincial tourney

Only one team could beat the Halton Hills Bantam Bulldogs at the provincial championship. Unfortunately, the 'Dogs ran into them twice.

Akwesasne, which went on to win the Ontario Lacrosse Association B championship, topped the Bulldogs 6-2 to eliminate them. Despite the loss, the Bulldogs still finished in the top six out of 28 teams.

Braden Artem, who had 14 goals in the tournament, and Kevin Deforest scored for the Bulldogs in their final game.

Halton Hills got two goals each from Artem and Nic Grasby as it opened the tournament with a 7-2 win over Fergus. Matthew Laidlaw, Darcy Gordon and Deforest also scored and Sean Nellis picked up three assists. Tyler Hill and Brett Maltby had two assists each.

Akwesasne doubled the 'Dogs 4-2 in their next game. Artem had both goals.

Artem recorded his first of three straight hat-tricks in a 6-3 win over Mimico. Daniel Woolford, Greg Henry and Deforest had the other goals and Brad Ethier and Tyler Hill each had two assists.

The Bulldogs held off a late rally to edge Huntsville 9-8. The Bulldogs built a 9-3 lead but Huntsville rallied with five goals in the final 14 minutes. Artem had five points, including his second hat-trick. Also scoring were Maltby, Hill, Gordon, Laidlaw, Henry and Ethier.

Halton Hills scored another 7-2 victory over Niagara-on-the-Lake. Artem and Grasby each had three goals and Nellis added a single.
