

Legion members host their American 'cousins'

In honour of the 60th anniversary of the Invasion of Dieppe coming up, there is going to be a parade in Cambridge. Branch 120, Georgetown Legion will be attending with our Colour Party. Signup sheet is in the bar for guests to attend and march on Sept. 12. Please call the branch for times.

The American Legion Post 40 came to Georgetown on Thursday, Aug. 15 and marched with our branch members in the Canadian National Exhibition. Later that evening we all enjoyed the Friendship Dinner and Dance. Post 40 donated $100 towards flowers for our Remembrance Park. We would like to send our appreciation to our good friends. Thank you.

Cribbage starts on Monday, Sept. 8. Everyone is welcome. It's lots of fun and there's lots of people to meet. We have a great executive to look after you.

Hey kids, with summer coming to an end and school starting, please think of a poem or poster for the Legion's annual Remembrance Day contest. More details will be available later.

Do not forget the meat draws on Saturdays. In house games (members only) and open house games will be starting in September. Sign up sheets are in the bar.

Dues for 2003 will be coming up for renewal soon. Pay at the bar.

Wishing everyone a great end of summer, our next general meeting will be held on Sept. 12 and our Hungry Man's Breakfast will be held on Sept. 21, 8-11 a.m., upstairs at the Legion.

HHCSI assists seniors

Halton Hills Community Support and Information (HHCSI) provides numerous programs for local seniors.

For example, Wheels to Meals is a social outing for seniors in Georgetown. There are two lunches a month held at a local restaurant, church or community hall. The cost varies according to venue. To reserve your spot and request transportation, call Liz, 905-873-6502.

Assistance is also provided to seniors to help understand and fill out forms or accessing appropriate services. Staff is available to help at the office or will visit the senior's home. Call Kim, 905-873-6502 (Georgetown) or Rebecca, 519-853-3310 (Acton).
