Strong final round lifts Sinclair

A strong final round propelled Gloria Sinclair into the top-20 at the Canadian Ladies Golf Association senior ladies championship.

GLORIA SINCLAIR

The North Halton Golf and Country Club member shot a final round of 80 to finish with a three-day total of 249 at the Riverside Country Club in Saint John, New Brunswick. That tied her for 19th in the field of 85 golfers.

Sinclair shot rounds of 83 and during the first two days of competition. Alison Murdoch of Vancouver won the event with a three-day total of 230, giving her a two-shot win over Barbara Berkmeier of St. Louis. The championship drew a strong international contingent. Of the golfers who finished ahead of Sinclair, four were from the United States and one was from Scotland.

Rep soccer roundup

Mustangs take first with 2-1 win

Erik van Wissen's second half goal lifted the Georgetown Boys Under-11 Mustangs to a 2-1 win over Cambridge and moved them into first place in the South Region Soccer League.

The Mustangs trailed 1-0 at the half but Victor Thompson tied the game off Kamil Burghardt's corner kick. The victory extended the Mustangs' home winning streak to eight games. Burghardt scored twice in the Mustangs' previous game, a 3-3 tie against Waterloo. Kyle Ascikiewicz had the other Mustangs goal. There are just three games remaining in the season for the Mustangs, two of them against Hamilton, which is also in the running for first place.

Hockey referees to host tryouts this weekend

The Georgetown Hockey Referees Association will be holding open tryouts for the 2002-2003 season on Saturday, September 7 at 7:15 p.m. and Sunday, September 8 at 8:15 a.m.

Both sessions will be held at the Mold-Masters SportsPlex on the B pad.

Anyone age 14 and older interested in officiating house league or rep hockey, can attend. Be sure to bring a CSA-approved helmet with mask, skates and a whistle.

For more information, contact Bob DeZeeuw at 905-877-9621.

OHL Battalion coming here

The troops will be invading Georgetown Friday night.

The Brampton Battalion and St. Michael's Majors will play an Ontario Hockey League exhibition game at the Alcott Arena on Friday at 7 p.m. Former Georgetown Raider Daryl Knowles is a member of St. Michael's while the Battalion are the Raiders' OHL affiliate.

The Battalion were 1-1 in exhibition play heading into Tuesday's game against the Majors.
