

Foundation friends

The Georgetown Hospital Foundation received a $2,225 boost Thursday as organizers with the weekly (classic car) Boston Pizza Cruisers presented Foundation chair Paul Armstrong with a cheque. On hand for the presentation were (from left) Paul Armstrong, Richard Frazer, Sharon Harrison, Mike and Lynne Boyd, Lee Martin, Boston Pizza owner Scott Roach, Brent Shelly, Marlene Rae, Brittany Rae, Anna Morgan, Glen Rae, and Pasky Chenier.

SIU investigating cruiser crash in Acton

initially believed to have suffered head injuries in the crash and was transported to Georgetown Hospital. SIU spokesperson Rose Hong said Tuesday the woman, who was released from hospital, has been readmitted.

Irani was treated and released from hospital.

The driver of the Tracker, a 47-year-old Mississauga man, received minor injuries. A second female passenger in the Tracker wasn't injured.

Damage to the Tracker is estimated at $20,000, and damage to the police vehicle at $40,000.

Hong said the SIU is asking anyone who witnessed the accident or has information to call 1-800-787-8529 or 416-641-1879.

Four SIU investigators have been assigned to investigate the accident said Hong. She did not know how long the investigation would take.

Royal Canadian Air Cadets "756" Squadron

Several people have asked us if girls are allowed to join Air Cadets. The answer is a resounding yes!!!

Cpt. Cassandra Leonard attended the "Introduction to Leadership" camp at Penhold, Alberta, where she learned the basics of leadership and other useful things like C.P.R. and basic first aid. She told us that the thing she liked most about the camp was making new friends from all over Canada.

Cdt. Megan Owens was the only girl from our squadron to attend the "Rifle Coach" course at Camp Borden, where she was taught range safety and how to teach other people how to fire air rifles. She told us that her greatest challenge was trying to speak French with the new friends she made from Quebec.

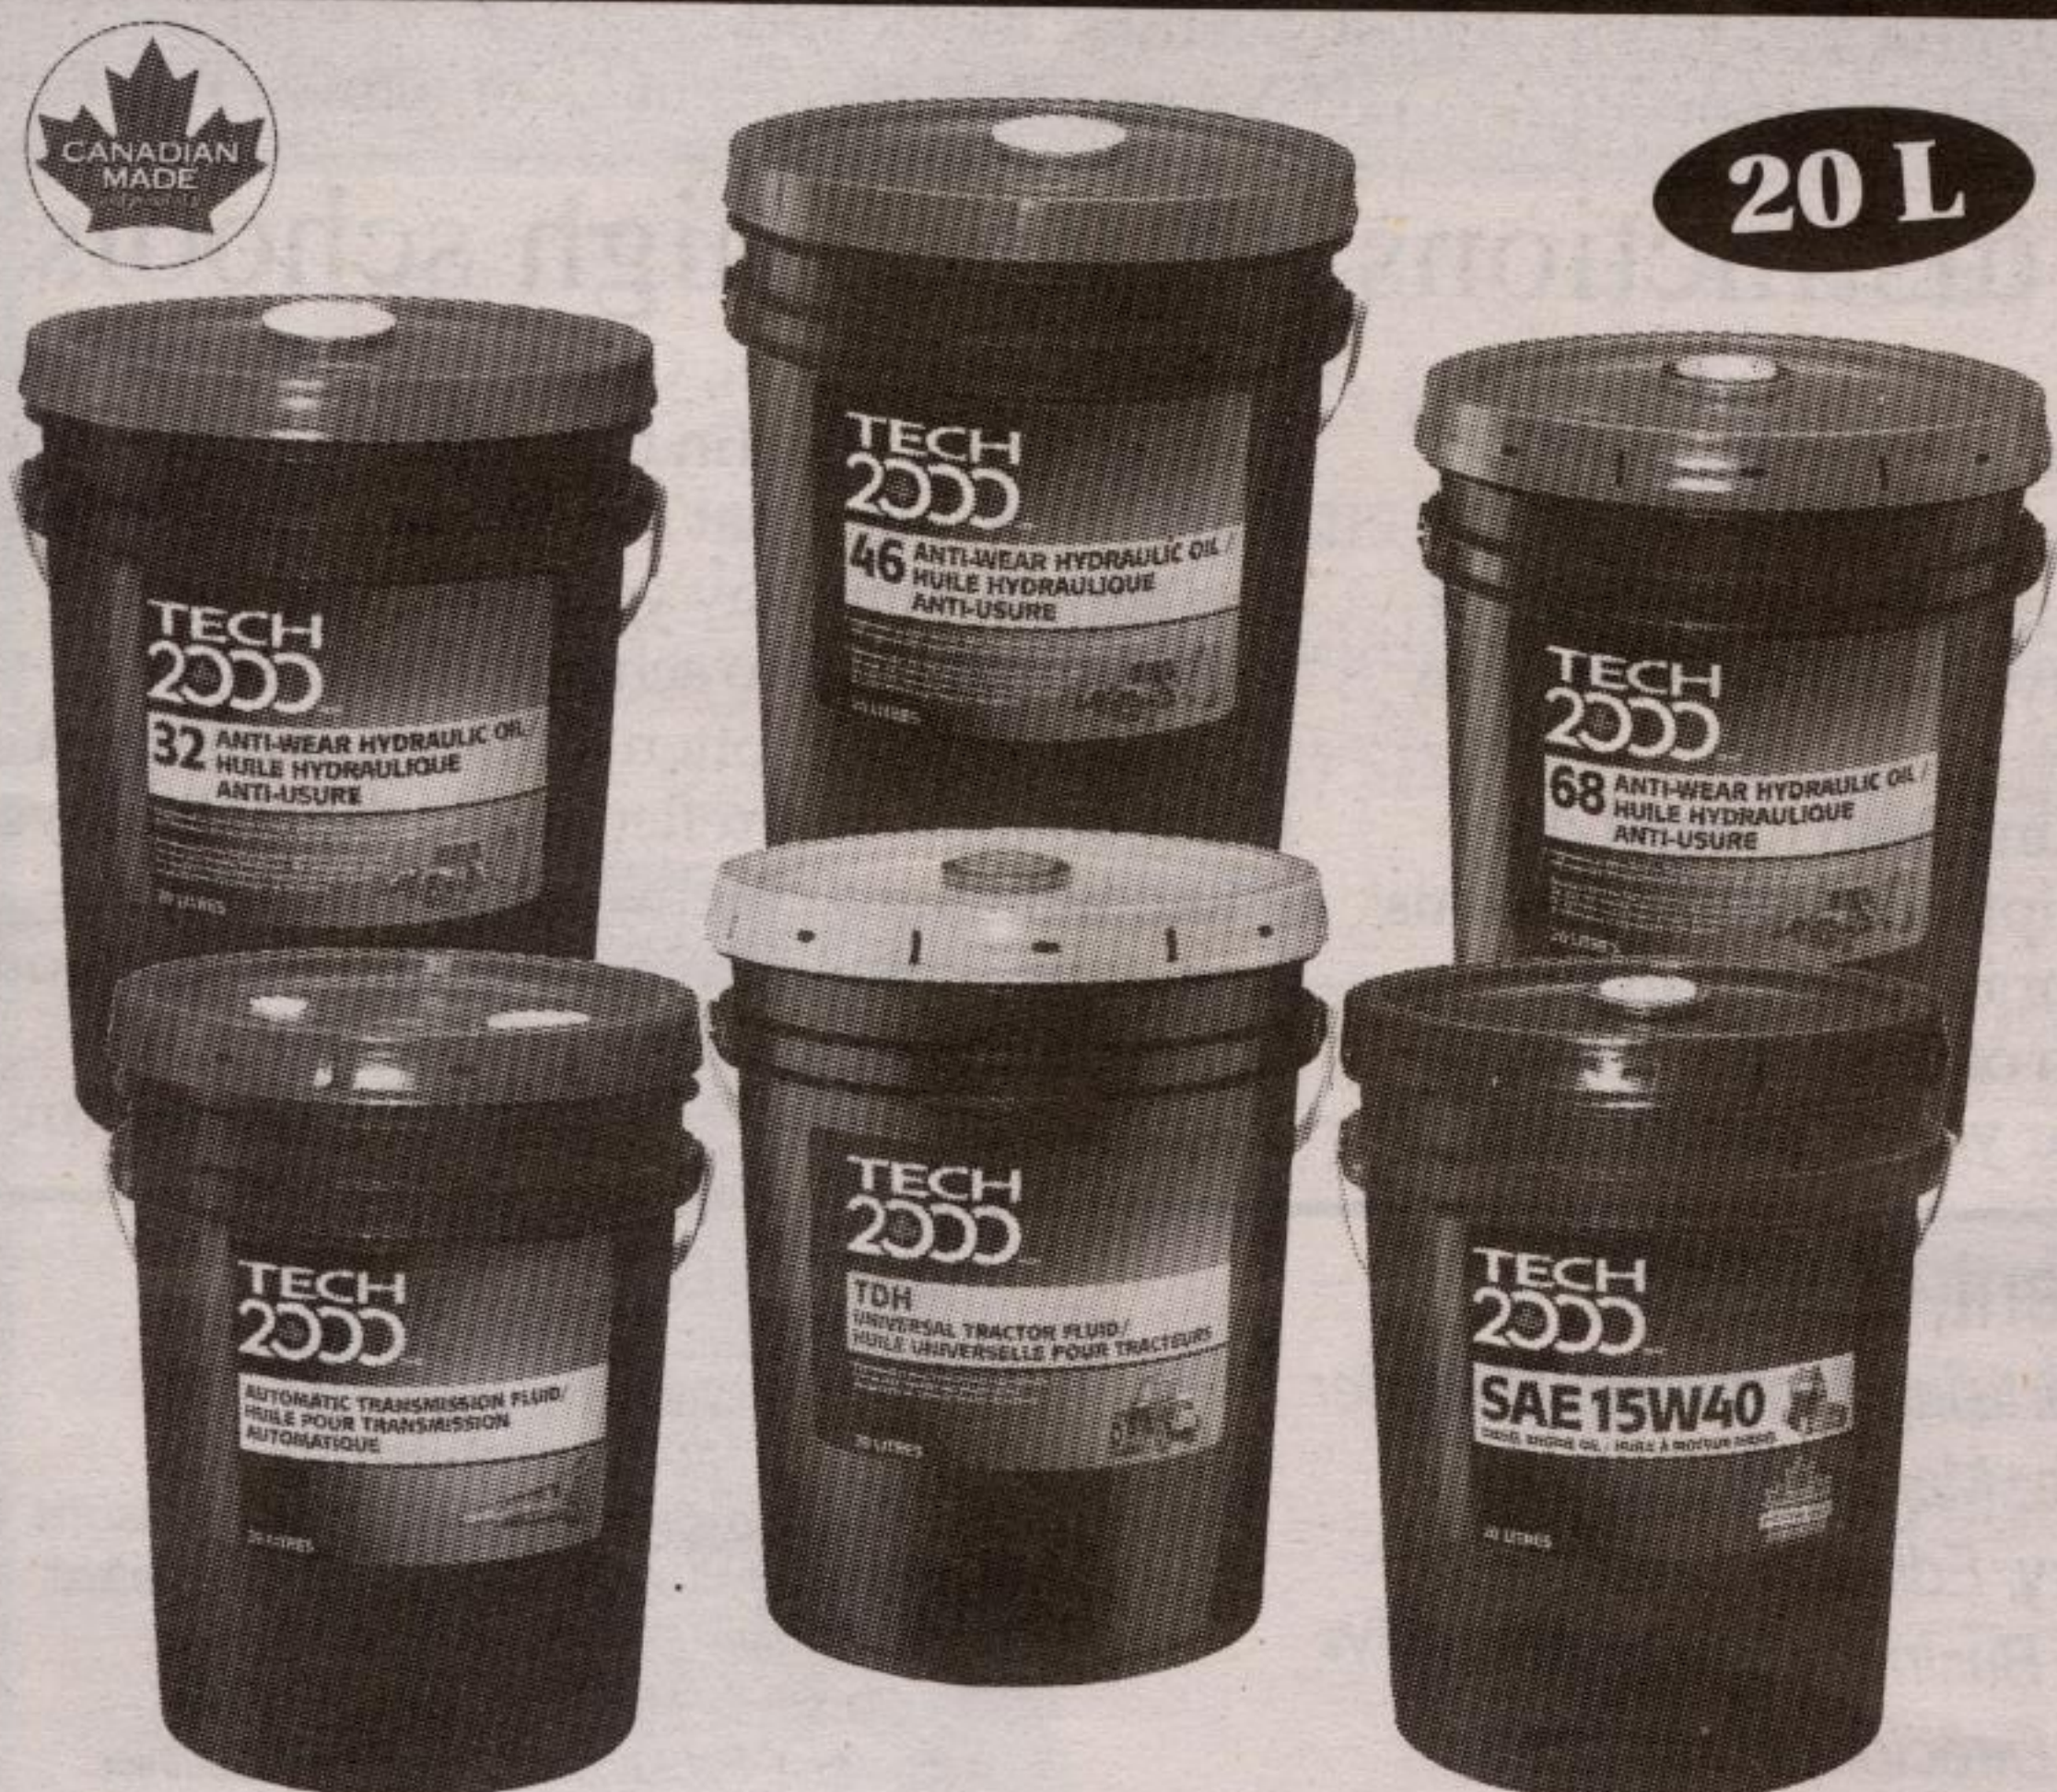

Cdt. Lindsay Owens (yes they are sisters) was selected for "Basic Camp" at Trenton, where she said that she had a great time, they arranged all sorts of activities for the cadets including a flight in an "Airbus". Lindsay said "There were C.F.18 fighter jets taking off and landing near our camp all the time". However she most enjoyed competing in the sports and swimming, and following her sister she achieved a 100% in marksmanship at the rifle range.

We are still enrolling on Monday nights at the Todd Rd. Armoury. Come and see what we're all about!
