Georgetown Soccer Club finals

McMenemy's overtime goal secures Girls U-15 soccer title

mily McMenemy scored in overtime to lift Neilson Dairy Lo a 2-1 victory over John van Wissen Garden Centre in the Girls Under-15 Georgetown Soccer Club championship Saturday.

Neilson looked to be on its way to victory after Christy McLaughlin had given Neilson a 1-0 lead. But with just 30 seconds to play, Sarah Hillier cashed in a direct kick to tie the game.

It was the second time Hillier had come through with a late goal to force overtime. In the semifinals, Hillier scored in the final minute of regulation to send her team to overtime against Vanderburghs, who got a goal from Jaime Broadbent. It would eventually take a shootout with Adrienne Veltman scoring the deciding goal that sent van Wissen to the final.

Neilson Dairy advanced with a 2-1 win over Floyd's Auto Body. Sarah Bruno and Sadie McClure scored for Neilson and Kristen Elliott replied for Floyd's.

In the Girls Under-17 final it was Hope Aero defeating the regular season champions, Minuteman Press, 3-1.

All Call Communications backed up its league title by defeating Allison's Farm Market 1-0 in the Girls Under-13 final. Also following up its league title was Dunlop Insurance. It edged Inspiration Auto 2-1 for the Girls Under-11 championship.

Regular season champs, the Georgetown Referees, blanked Georgetown Kuman Centre 1-0 to take the Girls Under-10 title and Kendale Mechanical posted a 1-0 victory over Wal-Mart in the Girls Under-9 championship. Kendale also won the regular season title.

Roos' Travel doubled Olon 2-1 to win the Boys Under-13 division. Neilson Dairy was the regular season champion.

Prism Printing kept its grip on the Boys Under-11 division. After winning the league title it blanked SunPac Foods 1-0 in the championship game. Also sweeping the league and Cup titles was Total Service Landscape. It defeated Ollie's Cycle and Ski in the Boys Under-10 championship.

Sammy's Ice Cream won the Boys Under-9 league title but it was Burtro Lawn Care and Georgetown Fruit Market squaring off in the championship game. Burtro took the Cup with a 3-2 win.

Mustangs finish first-place season with victory fter preventing goals all season long, Keegan Witton proved just as capable of scoring them.

Witton, the van Wissen Garden Centre Boys Under-11 Mustangs goalie, moved up front for the team's final game of the season and scored once and set up two others to lead Georgetown to a 3-2 victory. Travis Wright and Victor Thompson also scored.

The Mustangs, who had clinched first place in the South Region Soccer League with a back-to-back wins over Hamilton in their previous games, finished the season with a 13-2-3 record.

Georgetown closed the season with a 12game unbeaten streak (11 wins and one tie).

The Mustangs were the highest scoring team in the league and also allowed the fewest goals.

Other members of the league champions are: Dylan van Zeumeren, Mitchell Racinsky, Adam Quinlan, Chad Fellows, Billy Pavlopoulos, Scott Green, Kamil Burghardt, Erik van Wissen, Kyle Asciukiewicz, Charles Labonte, Matt Laroche, AJ van Doorn, Troy Breen, Connor McAlpine and Dillon Wintjes.

T&T Diesel's Victoria Bonotto (above) attempts to kick the ball past an Allison's Farm Market player in the Girls Under-13 semifinal. Allison's prevailed 1-0 in a double shootout but fell 1-0 in the championship game to All Call Communications.
