Winner forced to step down

Acton crowns another Miss Fall Fair

Joanne Haughie was named Miss Acton Fall Fair 2002 Thursday after Rachel Wallace who won the title at the Sept. 13 pageant stepped down earlier this week.

JOANNE HAUGHIE

According to event convener Kelly White, Wallace discovered she did not live within the boundary required for the Miss Acton Fall Fair competition. Contestants are required to live in Acton, Limehouse, Ballinafad or Rockwood or attend Acton High School. Wallace lives in Erin.

Wednesday night, White met with first runner-up Rebecca Burtney and second runner-up Haughie to discuss ascension to the crown. It was first offered to Burtney who preferred to remain as first runner-up and then to Haughie who accepted. White said Haughie, 18, was excited to accept the crown and was looking forward to the year ahead.

Both Haughie and Burtney will represent Acton at Milton Fall Fair this weekend, and will become involved in various community events throughout the year.

White said the abdication was "unfortunate and disappointing" and the first time it had happened in the Miss Acton Fall Fair pageant history.

"We are planning to move forward, and we hope that it will not tarnish Joanne's and Rebecca's year," White said. The matter will be addressed before next year's competition, she added.

Notice to members of the public interested in serving on the Halton Region Official Plan Review Steering Committee

Halton Region Council invites applications from members of the public who are interested in serving on Halton Region's Official Plan Review Steering Committee. Four volunteers, one from each of Halton's area municipalities - Burlington, Halton Hills, Milton and Oakville, are being sought to serve on the Committee in the capacity of Member-at-large.

The role of the Committee is to provide advice on consultation, to facilitate workshops and focus group meetings, to provide advice on Official Plan directions, and to comment on new policies. The Committee will meet every three weeks for the initial stages of its work, and will continue to meet until Regional Council has considered all proposed amendments to the Regional Official Plan in 2003.

Application forms are available:

- For pick up from the Clerk's Division, Halton Region, 1151 Bronte Rd., Oakville
- By calling 905-825-6000 ext. 7200 (toll free: 1-866-442-5866)
- On Halton Region's Official Plan web page: www.region.halton.on.ca/officialplan

All applications must be received by 10:00 a.m. on Friday, October 4th, 2002.

Applicants will be contacted on October 4th to schedule an interview on October 7th, 2002.
