PERKIN, Len "the legend" - September 29, 2001.

A full year has come and gone, and the print you've left on our lives has still remained empty. So many events have happened and I've wanted to pick up the phone to share them with you - I know I can only do this now during the quiet times before I fall asleep. But, I know you're still here. Whether it is your lucky numbers that come up as our new apartment number, or while thinking about you, your name appears as a street sign or license plate, I know you're watching. Thank you for your humour, for treating Kevin like your son, for making Mom complete and for my little sister. You've been the best Dad a girl could ever have asked for and I'm a better person because of you.

Here's looking at you!
Love Doll-Face (Adina)
