

Classic cash

Following last June's Classics Against Cancer car show, organizers met last week to hand over a cheque for $20,000 to the Cancer Assistance Services of Halton Hills (CASHH). On hand for the presentation were (from left) Classics Against Cancer director Dan Wagstaff and chairman Moe Lamothe to CASHH representatives David Hasan and Ted Gorth.

Local man charged with break and enter

Halton Regional Police have charged a Halton Hills man with break and enter with intent to commit theft after a man entered a Glen Cr. home Monday afternoon and demanded cigarettes from the homeowner. Police were called and arrested the man.

Charged is Myron Lotocky, 44, of Mountain St.

Halton Police report 50 sheets of plywood, valued at $1,000, were stolen from a Ninth Line house undergoing renovations late Saturday or early Sunday.

A $5,000 2000 Honda all-terrain vehicle that had been stolen from an Eighth Line business was found in the woods behind a Ninth Line home Wednesday evening by an area resident.

Halton Hills firefighters were called to Acton High School last Monday morning after school staff reported acetone (a highly flammable liquid) had been spilled.

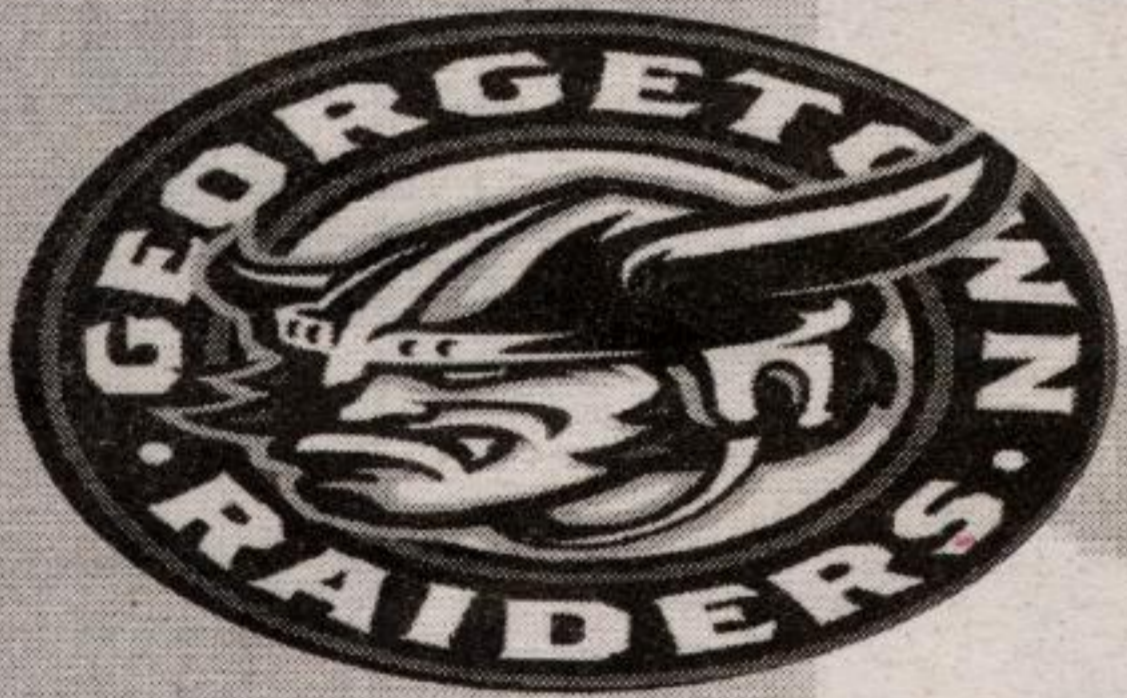

No dangerous levels were detected and firefighters ventilated the building.
