Carnivale capers

Georgetown Alliance Church held its annual Carnivale this past weekend and there was a wide variety of wacky events for the younger set to enjoy. (Above) Cody Fry, 7, (left) and sister Courtney Fry, 12, of Georgetown took part in the Gladiator game while Maya Fik, 2, of Georgetown, chose to spend her time in a less stressful manner in the inflatable castle.

Child Abuse Breaks Hearts

Child abuse is a far-reaching problem that affects children of all ages, socioeconomic levels and ethnicities. It is every adult's responsibility to help stop child abuse by reporting suspected abuse or neglect. If you believe a child has been harmed, or is in danger of being harmed, call your local department of children and family services or your local police department. If you are a parent, do your best to provide a nurturing, loving home environment for your child. If you need help doing this, there are resources to help you - look online or in the phone book, or ask for assistance through your church or your child's school. If we all do our part to prevent child abuse, we'll get to the heart of the matter.
