Karate masters here this weekend

Boreland's School of Karate will host six of the world's top instructors of Shogen-Ryu Karate this weekend as part of an international seminar.

Among the guests will be Grand Master Sensei Kensei Taba, a 10th Dan black belt. Joining him from Okinawa, Japan will be Sensei Seiei Shiroma, Sensei Takeshi Tamaki, both 9th Dan, Sensei Kiyomasa Maeda, an 8th Dan and Sensei Masahiko Tokashiki, a 6th Dan. Sensei Vern Tilley, president of the North American branch of Shogen-Ryu and an 8th Dan, will also be there.

The event begins today (Friday) with training session for black belts. Saturday, training will include lower ranked belts and the weekend's activities will wrap up Sunday with a public demonstration at 1:30 p.m. at Boreland's School of Karate (235 Guelph St.). For information call 905-873-9489.
