Pricey piece of art

Former Halton Hills resident and artist Richard Berghammer traveled from his home in Elliot Lake to see one of his paintings, owned by the Town of Halton Hills, on display at the Civic Centre. The town held a reception in honour of Berghammer who is selling his personal collection of 62 pieces to a Chinese investor for a total of $7 million. Berghammer was joined by Halton Hills Mayor Kathy Gastle as they admired the town's painting. Berghammer's work is unique since it's created by painting acrylic on leather. Paintings local residents purchased from Berghammer in the '70s and '80s for less than $1,000 have now appreciated dramatically in light of the sale of his collection.

Child Abuse Breaks Hearts

Child abuse is a far-reaching problem that affects children of all ages, socioeconomic levels and ethnicities. It is every adult's responsibility to help stop child abuse by reporting suspected abuse or neglect. If you believe a child has been harmed, or is in danger of being harmed, call your local department of children and family services or your local police department. If you are a parent, do your best to provide a nurturing, loving home environment for your child. If you need help doing this, there are resources to help you - look online or in the phone book, or ask for assistance through your church or your child's school. If we all do our part to prevent child abuse, we'll get to the heart of the matter.
