

Acton Seniors invite card players to learn bridge

Would you like to learn to play bridge? Would you like to improve your bridge game? Gord Chapman, local barrister and master bridge player has agreed to teach a bridge class, starting Monday, Oct. 21, 1:30 p.m. at Acton Seniors Recreation Centre. Come and enjoy the game while making new acquaintances. Bring a friend if you like. Please register on the bridge chart at the seniors centre right away.

At the centre we believe that no one is ever too old to learn something new. So we have purchased two new powerful computers with the Trillium Fund money and are offering computer classes on Tuesdays, starting Oct. 22. Lonnie Wilks, formerly a computer engineer with IBM, is teaching the courses. If you always wanted to learn how to use a computer or get on the Internet, here is your opportunity. You will find lessons fun and interesting. The classes are offered at half price; six one-hour lessons for $90, two people to a class, and you can use the computers to practise free of charge any day outside of class time. The trip to Casino Rama on Sept. 25 had the following winners: Merle Carr, 50/50 draw; Bette Footitt, lucky birthday; Merle Carr and Isobel Nicolls, lucky seats. For bid euchre on Sept. 26 we had the following mooners, Mae Milton and Ruth Burke. See you at the centre!

Sunnybrook vets enjoy Legion visit

On October 6, Sunnybrook veterans came and visited our Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120 with 31 vets, 16 caregivers, two bus drivers and 12 helpers.

We played bingo, had a beautiful dinner served by the Ladies Auxiliary and music by Kent Tocher from Hillsburgh had the place rocking with old and new music. Speakers included Sgt.-At-Arms Joe Keating, Canteen chair Wade Bond, Liz McNeilly and Ralph Paulsen of Sunnybrook vets. Marion McGugan, the president of Ladies Auxiliary presented a Certificate of Appreciation to Kent Tocher. The day ended at 3:30 p.m. and everyone is looking forward to next year. Thank you everyone who helped today and oh yes, our bingo caller, branch secretary Ann Felker.

Don't forget to come to our Hungry Man's Breakfast tomorrow (Saturday), 8-11 a.m. at our Mill St. branch. Everyone is welcome. Cost is $4 per person, children under 12, $2. Takeout is available too.

Guide to the Outdoors

Julie Pomeroy

I write this to the person who STOLE money from our BRUCE TRAIL DONATION BOX located on our front counter. We work hard to raise the money you have stolen from us. We donate this money, along with customers who visit our store, because we believe that the Bruce Trail needs our help in protecting and preserving one of Canada's most important natural environments, the Niagara Escarpment, named a UNESCO World Biosphere by United Nations in 1990. When was the last time you walked the Bruce Trail? It is spectacular in its natural beauty. I highly recommend it for good health and for our souls. When you return, if you should decide to make the money mysteriously reappear, just as it disappeared, we will understand and the trail will have proved it's worth.
