Mom and sons perform in You'll Get Used To It!

A Brampton stage production is a real "family affair" for the Willis family of Georgetown.

Marilyn Willis and her sons Michael and Matt are performing in Full Cast Production's presentation of Peter Colley's You'll Get Used To It! - The War Show at the Lester B. Pearson Theatre in Brampton.

Marilyn is working double duty as ensemble performer with her sons, and as musical director. She recently served as musical director for Georgetown Globe Productions' Anything Goes. Michael and Matt have also appeared in numerous Globe productions including Michael in West Side Story and Matt in Anything Goes. Michael recently won award for his portrayal of Gilbert Blythe in Meadowvale Music Theatre's production of Anne of Green Gables.

You'll Get Used To It! tells the story of a squad of Canadian soldiers and the women in their lives, from the beginning of their enlistment to the final victory in World War 2. Beginning with the rambunctious comedy of their boot camp days to chasing girls in England to the terrors of D-Day, this play captures the essence of time through humour, popular songs of the day and drama. There is even a chance for audience participation with an "old time" sing-along.

Full Cast Productions is a new group created by Rob Woodcock and Elizabeth Bell. Its mandate is to bring entertaining theatrical productions to Brampton and surrounding areas with the main focus on mid-size musicals suitable for family entertainment.

You'll Get Used to It! will be performed Oct. 18, 19, 24, 25, and 26 at 8 p.m. with a matinee on Oct. 20 at 2 p.m. Tickets are $17 per person. Call the Pearson Theatre Box Office, 905-874-2800. The theatre is located on 150 Central Park Dr. in Brampton.
