Jans posts win for Canada

Melanie Jans defeated Joshna Chinappa of India 9-3, 9-1, 9-4 to set up a crucial match with South Africa at the World Team Squash Championships in Denmark.

Canada and South Africa entered Tuesday's match with identical 6-3 records. Australia leads the pool with a perfect 9-0 record, followed by South Africa and Canada. With the top two teams advancing, a victory over South Africa would allow Canada to advance and guarantee a top-eight finish.

Jans, ranked 34th in the world, split her first two matches, beating Elisabet Sado of Spain 9-5, 9-2, 9-1 and losing to the third-ranked player in the world, Sarah Fitz-Gerald of Australia, 9-1, 9-4, 9-1.

Canada entered the tournament as the ninth seed.
