Legion Ladies Auxiliary honours

Mae Tost receives 60-year service pin

The Ladies Auxiliary to the Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120 (Georgetown) celebrated its Honours and Awards and 74th Birthday Supper in last month. Many thanks to Hazel Dumper and Crystal Thorogood and their committees for all the hard work it takes to make this event so successful.

Approximately 90 people sat down to dinner, and as usual Linda Armstrong and her helpers did a great job. The dinner was delicious. Thank you to Major Garry Kramer and the Air Cadets from the 756 Squadron who served the dinner. Job well done. Also to branch members Norm Griffin and Wayne Sheppard who helped out in the kitchen.

Mae Tost, a resident of Allendale received her 60-year service pin. Two members of our late Comrade Vi King's family, Nicole Rayner and Cindy King attended the dinner and accepted Vi's 50-year pin. Rita Rudiger received her 45-year pin. All our sports enthusiasts owe Rita a vote of thanks. She was the lady who started the sports programs in the Auxiliary.

Grace Harrison received her 40-year pin and a 35-year pin went to Marion Carney. Thirty-year pins went to Myra Brayley, Vi Roberts and Marie Louth, 20-year pins to Sheila Hicks and Jean Harley and 10-year pins to Lynn LaFleur, Eleanor Hurren and Ruth Leferbe.

Certificates of Appreciation were presented to Nadine Bradley, Ann Felker, Nellie Scheeringa, Priscilla Reyce and to Ken Tocher for all the time he gives to the Auxiliary. A life membership was presented to Mary Russell, who as a 34-year member has served on the executive for 16 years. She was Sgt.-at-Arms, Standard Bearer and has served on many committees as well as behind the scenes at many events. Congratulations to Mary.

Zone Commander Ethel Eastwood was our guest speaker and brought greetings from Ontario Provincial Command on our 74th year. She reminded us that our membership was dwindling and new members were needed, both in the Auxiliary and the branch.

Congratulations to Marlene Haskins, Molly Green, Mae Harley and Wilma Parker. These ladies will represent Georgetown in the District Euchre to be held in Norwich on Oct. 26. Zone/Social Euchre on Nov. 2 in Erin. Our bowling team played in Acton and finished fifth. From all reports it was a fun day.

Remember our bazaar on Nov. 16. There will be a silent auction, knit table, Christmas table, bake table, penny auction, book sale as well as our draw for the grand prize.

There will be a zone meeting on Oct. 27 at Cooksville Legion. This is an informal meeting (no uniforms with the exception of the Colour party and Zone officers). Meeting begins at 12 noon for the Colour Party and Sports, refreshments at 12:30 p.m., zone meeting at 1 p.m. If you are going to attend please advise our secretary Nicole Gosse.

Open Darts upstairs on Friday, Oct. 25, register 7 p.m., play at 7:30 p.m. four-person teams, $10 per team. This is a fun night, so come on down and have a good time. Refreshments available.

Our next meeting will be held on Nov. 21, see you there.
