

660 Card of thanks

MY sincere thanks for the many cards, calls, good wishes, and prayers received during the time I was in hospital and since recuperating at home. Thank you to the nurses, staff and auxiliary volunteers at the Osler Health Centre, Georgetown campus, who were so kind and considerate in so many ways. To Dr. Bourns for his compassion & caring and the VON who were there when needed, especially to my wonderful family during this time.

THE family of David Pyke wish to extend our heartfelt thanks to family and friends for their expression of sympathy and support during a most difficult time. Thank you for the flowers, cards, and donations in Dave's memory. To our good neighbours - thanks for feeding us when food was the furthest thing from our minds. Our thanks to the VON, especially Linda Dougherty (the nurse with angel's wings) for her compassion and gentle care and making it possible for us to let Dave go with dignity and surrounded in our circle of love. Sincere thanks to Father Bob Bulbrook for the moving memorial service, the staff at Blue Springs Funeral Home for their kindness and assistance, Dr. Doug Vair for his friendship and care through the years, and staff at the Credit Valley Hospital. Special thanks to Ian Passmore for going out of his way to ensure that all arrangements were taken care of to lessen the burden on the family. His patience, understanding, compassion and sympathy did not go unnoticed. Thank you to Nigel Smedmor, our piper, for a special send-off and to the family and friends who acted as pallbearers - thank you for honoring Dave in this way.
