

Knitting and Crochet Guild hosts exhibit

More than 160 pieces of knitting and crochet, representing the work of 30 members of The Halton Hands in Motion Knitting and Crochet Guild on display at The Gallery of the Halton Hills Cultural Centre. Guild president Barbara Gouge-Hauser (left) and past-president Diane Crawford were among those who assembled the display last week. The exhibit will run until Sunday at the gallery.

Teen bands to perform concert

The Something To Do in Georgetown Show, an evening of independent punk, rock and emo music is being presented Saturday (Nov. 9) in the church hall of St. George's Anglican Church, 60 Guelph St., in Georgetown.

Feature bands include Trafe, Better Than Nothing, Elemeno Piva, all from Georgetown, Fall Semester from Acton, Love Letter Refuge from Milton and The Innocence Project and October High from Brampton.

The concert is the outgrowth of an August concert in which Trafe performed in Brampton at the Emmanuel United Church.

"Take a hint from the title of the show," says organizer Jasmine Landau. "We've always complained that there is nothing for high school students to do in Georgetown!"

After calling numerous venues in town, Landau made a connection with Rev. Rob Park of St. George's.

"All of the halls were too expensive for us to consider, but Rev. Park was excited about providing a safe place for youth to get together," she said.

The bands, all of whom are talented musicians, are looking forward to having an opportunity to perform locally. Many of them already have CDs recorded and are happy for the chance to reach their audience right here in town.

Tickets are $5 at the door, which opens at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be available for sale at the hall. For more information, contact Jasmine at 905-703-0332.

Garden takes shape

Ben Hartwell, 8, of Georgetown was one of the dozens of volunteers who turned out recently to take part in the Friends of the Old Seed House Garden planting day. Drinking and Driving Can Distort Life.

Drink and drive, and your life may never be the same again. You not only risk your life when you drink and drive, you also risk losing your license, incurring expensive fines, doing time in jail or even causing injury or death to an innocent bystander. With all these consequences facing you, driving under the influence is the worst decision you can make. Don't take chances with drinking and driving; there's always a better alternative.
