Chamber and town to hold industry workshop

The Town of Halton Hills Economic Development Office, Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce and the Ontario Ministry of Enterprise, Opportunity and Innovation hosts The Place to be for R&D on Wednesday, Nov. 13.

The workshop will be held 8-11 a.m. at the Halton Hills Civic Centre.

Guest speaker will be Dave Sabina, chair of the Hamilton Region SR & ED Practitioners Group. He is a R&D (research and development) recovery specialist and will tell participants why they need to hold onto their old drawings and files... money.

This seminar is important to companies who manufacture products, modify processes and design new materials and processes. This can include agriculture and food processors.

Registration is $30 and includes a continental breakfast. RSVP is requested by Monday, Nov. 11. Call Kelly Ballinger at 905-873-2601, ext. 2345.

Topper's is welcomed to town

Topper's Pizza on Mountainview Rd. was officially opened when (from left) company founder Ron Toppazzini was joined by franchise owner Mike Mavraganis to receive welcoming certificates from Halton Hills Mayor Kathy Gastle and Halton Hills Chamber of Commerce president Norm Paget. Topper's Pizza features unique Italian bread crust which is a trademark of the company. For more information about Topper's call the pizza shop at 905-877-1717.

Swiss Chalet to raise cash for charities

Swiss Chalet is holding its third annual Festive Special Community Days on Wednesday, Nov. 13 and Thursday, Nov. 14.

The restaurant will donate 50 cents from the sale of each Festive Special and Quarter Chicken Dinner to local children's charities.

"Together with our customers,

Swiss Chalet has already donated close to $100,000 to local children's charities," said Steven Tsambalieros, Chief Operating Officer of Swiss Chalet. As well, Swiss Chalet's head office has made a $10,000 donation to Friends of We Care, a group dedicated to sending children with physical disabilities to summer camp.

This is a program of the Ontario Screening Initiative funded through the Government of Ontario, Ministry of Citizenship

The Town of Halton Hills, with Parks and Recreation Ontario and Volunteer Canada, is pleased to present . . .

Introduction to the Safe Steps Volunteer Screening Program

Who Would Benefit From Attending?

If you are a representative (paid or volunteer) of a club, group, organization or department that provides services to children, youth, older adults, disabled persons or vulnerable individuals, this session is for you! If you are interested in learning more about screening volunteers, are interested in starting a volunteer screening program, and want to help make your programs as safe as possible, this session is for you!

By the end of this 3 hour session, you will be able to:

- Know what is meant by "screening"
- Identify what barriers might prevent you introducing screening
- Understand the 10 steps that make up a screening process
- Pinpoint the role of volunteer/staff leadership in promoting screening
