Royal Canadian Legion Branch 120 (Georgetown) president Harry Archer (above) salutes his fallen comrades after laying a wreath at Georgetown cenotaph during Monday's Remembrance Day service at 11 a.m. In addition to the public being present, Monday's service was also attended by Park School students, who sang a song during the service. At left, Branch 120 member Crystal Thorogood was among the many who braved the rain to lay a wreath during Sunday's service at Glen Williams Cenotaph.
