

Charity book sale on Saturday

Fraser Direct is holding a charity book sale on Saturday, 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. at 100 Armstrong Ave. in Georgetown.

This is an annual event, which raised over $20,000 for local charities last year. Over 1,000 people attended, as book lovers and bargain hunters waded through piles of books, looking for Christmas gifts. All product is new, with some books slightly damaged, but most are in perfect condition.

North America Outdoor Group has donated its hard-cover golf and fishing books, as well as hundreds of videos on outdoor subjects. Highlights For Children has once again donated its popular Puzzlemania books. F & W Book Clubs have donated arts and crafts books. Woodworking, health, gardening, arts, crafts—you name the subject and there are books here ready to purchase at incredible prices. Most hardcovers are $7 and softcovers are $5.

All profits are donated to local charities. Fraser Direct staff donate their time to get as much money to the recipients as possible. Receiving funds this year are The Salvation Army Christmas Hamper Program, Halton's Women's Place, Dominion Gardens Project, Cancer Assistance Services, and the Halton Hills Sports Museum.

"It's our chance to give back to our community," said owner Lois Fraser. "We are grateful to the community for coming to help us support these worthy organizations."
